ROTH-NICKELSEN WEDDING

In a candle light service on Saturday afternoon, October 22, Miss Sophia Nickelsen became the bride of Mr. Howard James Roth in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nickelsen of County Line road, Deerfield. Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok of St. Paul's church officiated in a bower of richly colored autumn flowers. August Meyer of Chicago played the wedding march and the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin princess style gown with a long train and her long tulle veil fell from a halo of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. Miss Alice Nickelsen was her sister's maid of honor and wore a frock of aqua blue satin and carried pink tea roses. Miss Vivian Roth of Pontiac, Ill., a sister of the groom was the bride's maid and wore rose satin and carried talisman roses. The groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roth of Fairbury, Ill., had as his best man his brother, Walter Roth of Pontiac, Ill. William Handley of Glenoc was an usher. The bride's mother wore black lace and a corsage of pink tea roses and the groom's mother also wore black and a similar corsage. The wedding supper for fifty was served in the home at 6 o'clock and a reception for 150 guests followed. Mr. and Mrs. Roth left for their home in Fairbury, where the groom is a teacher.

BRIDGE PARTY

A dessert-bridge party, to which the public is invited, will be held on Tuesday afternoon, November 1 at 1:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple under the sponsorship of the Deerfield Chapter of the Eastern Star. Mrs. R. A. Nelson, worthy matron, and Mrs. W. Ray Dobbins will be in charge.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

As is the custom in the Deerfield Grammar school, there will be a Halloween party on Monday evening, October 31, in the school for the children. There will be a costume show, entertainment, and favors. The program is planned to begin at 1:00 and close at 9:00 p.m., under the direction of the Recreation project and sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association.

ENGAGEMENT

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Josiah Sherman Mitchell of New Rochelle, N. Y., of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary Josephine Mitchell, to William Henry Nicholls, son of Mrs. William Henry Nicholls of Winnetka and the late Mr. Nicholls.

Miss Mitchell was graduated from the College of New Rochelle and from Columbia university. She is a member of the faculty of the College of New Rochelle and of the New Rochelle school system.

Mr. Nicholls attended the Deerfield (Mass.) academy and the University of Illinois. Mr. Nicholls is a brother of Mrs. W. M. Potter of Central avenue, and a cousin of Robert C. Nicholls of Rosemary terrace, both of Deerfield.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

The first of the three dinner meetings scheduled for the winter months by the Deerfield Presbyterian Men's Fellowship is to be held on Wednesday evening, November 2, at 7 o'clock in the church with members of the Women's association serving the dinner. Joseph Skeffington, an attorney in the Juvenile Court in Cook county will speak on Juvenile Crime with special emphasis on the constructive work being done for boys. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Carter M. Christensen, Clarence Wilson, E. H. Johnson, William Cruickshank and William Tennermann.

FOUR GOLDEN WEDDINGS

It is not often that four children in one family live to celebrate Golden Wedding anniversaries, but such is the case in the C. G. Muhlke family. Their daughter, Mary Charlotte Muhlke and her late husband George L. Brand were the first of the family to observe 50 years of married life. Next came Alfred H. Muhlke and his wife, the former Helen Snyder, followed by the Richard M. Vants (Lizzie Ellen Muhlke) two years ago and last Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Muhlke (Bertha Fischer) celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home in Libertyville. The first three of this family live in Deerfield. Mrs. George Brand and the Vants reside on Deerfield road, and the A. H. Muhlkes on Waukegan road. Their grandparents were pioneers in the village and part of the Muhlke property is now the Briarcliff Golf club. Mr. A. H. Muhlke is the oldest living native son of Deerfield.

APPRECIATION

If we can judge by general opinion—The Stagers in their presentation of The Ninth Guest, got off to a good start of the season—with insufficient seating capacity for the attendance—and, we think that here and now is a good time to thank the people of Deerfield and the surrounding district for their loyal support which will automatically spur The Stagers on to greater efforts to give the public better and more finished productions in the future.

Plans are already being made for the January production which we hope will again elevate us to a new level.—by The Scribe.

REGISTER

Deerfield voters are urged to regis- tive precincts. Precincts One and Two will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Precinct One is in the Town Hall and Precinct Two is in the Fritsch residence at 865 Deerfield road. Precinct Three is in West

Lake Forest and the polls there will be opened one hour earlier in the morning. Those who wish to vote should register.

Mrs. Charles V. Steiner of Rosemary terrace will entertain her bridge club on Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence Rollman was the guest of Mrs. J. E. Wahl in Waukegan at luncheon and bridge on Thursday.

Mrs. John Strong was hostess to the Pinochle club on Tuesday at her home on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ward (Edith Sherman) have returned from a trip to the Great Smoky Mountains and are now at home in the E. H. Selig apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haggie and two children, Vivian and Howard, and their two grandchildren, Betty and Maxine, visited Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Haggie in Evanston on Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Kaatz will have charge of the clothing pick-up which is sponsored by the Deerfield Women's club as a philanthropic project in conjunction with the relief office and the social service department of the Legion Auxilliary. Any one having clothing to give may call Mrs. Kaatz, Mrs. Milton Olson or Mrs. R. E. Pettis. During the month of September 108 articles of clothing were given out by Mrs. Olson. The clothing depot is open each Wednesday, in Mrs. Olson's home.

Dr. Preston Bradley of Chicago will be the speaker at the Deerfield Rotary club at its weekly luncheon on Thursday, November 3, at the Phil Johnson restaurant at County Line road. It is expected that about 200 guests will attend, as neighboring Rotary clubs have been extended an invitation. Edward Reagan is president of the local Rotarians.

Hubert Juhrend left on Thursday for Los Angeles, Calif., where he has been called back to work in the General Motors Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor Oliver of Chicago were Sunday guests at the Carl E. Olson home.
