GRANT-FIDDER NUPTIALS

The bride wore a gown of queen blue chiffon velvet, with shoulder corsage of white Pom-Pom crysanthemums.

Her bride's maid, Ruth Olsen, a girlhood friend, wore a gown of corsage of yellow crysanthemums, blue brocaded crepe with shoulder.

The groom's brother, Mr. Walter Fidler of Pittsburg, Pac., acted as best man.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fidler left for a trip through the mountains of the south. They are now at home to their friends at 149 S. Second street.

FELSENTHAL-MICHAELS WEDDING

Wearing an empire wedding dress of cream satin, made with a long train, and a tulle veil falling from a cap of net and rosepoint lace Miss Ruth Felsenthal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Felsenthal, 250 Mortimer road, Glencoe, was married Thursday, October 20, to Ralph Michaels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Michaels of Highland Park. Orchids in a shower fell from the small white Bible which she carried.

A profusion of white chrysanthemums made a lovely setting for the ceremony which was performed at Northmoor Country club at 8:30 in the evening by Rabbi Charles Shulman of North Shore Congregation Israel, a reception following.

Six young women attended the bride, and all were gowned alike in mahogany red velvet dresses made with hoop skirts. Even the little flower girl, Barbara Michaels, niece of the bridegroom, wore a dress of the same material. Miss Joan Felsenthal, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Robert Lauer of Cincinnati, the former Elizabeth Simon of Glencoe, the matron of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard Kahn of Highland Park, Miss Ruth Friedman of Winnetka, Miss Margery Felsenthal of Glencoe, cousin of the bride, and Miss Cynthia Putman of Aurora, Ill.

Harmonizing with the mahogany velvet of the dresses were the chrysanthemums in autumn shades, which they carried.

The bridegroom was attended by his two brothers, Everett and Joseph Michaels, while the ushers were David Joseph, Jr., of Cincinnati, Stanley Lewenstein of Charleston, W. Va., Robert Heavenrich of New York, and Charles Lazarus of Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Michaels and his bride have gone to South America for two months on their wedding trip. They have not yet decided where they will make their home, but it will probably be somewhere on the North Shore.
