

H. P. Library Will Show Pictures on Book Making Methods

On Saturday morning, November 19, at 10:30, the New Method Book Bindery from Jacksonville Illinois is showing at the Public library a motion picture showing how books are made and bound. This picture has been shown in various parts of the country. Highland Park is fortunate in having it brought here. There is no charge to the public. All who are interested in book binding are invited to come.

For those who are interested in the purchase of books for children, the North Shore Library club, composed of librarians from Evanston, Winnetka, Glencoe, Lake Forest and Highland Park, have compiled a list of new juvenile books which they recommend for purchase. Considerable time and study, actual use of the books with children, has been devoted to the preparation of this list. It is graded: recommendations for young, in-between, and older boys and girls. Anyone interested may secure a copy of this list from the Highland Park Public Library Juvenile department.

On this list are two books written and illustrated by Elizabeth Orton Jones. "David," a special edition of the Bible story and "Brownies-Hush," a story for young children, written by Gladys Adashead and illustrated by Miss Jones.

The regular Story Hour will be held this Saturday at 10:00 instead of 10:30.

Millicent C. Cooke Pianist, in Program at Twilight Tea

The first of the Twilight Teas of the year, given Sunday, Nov. 20 at 4 p.m. by the Arts committee of the Ravinia Woman's club, at the Ravinia school promises to be an afternoon of singular interest and beauty. There will be a piano program and talk by the well known English pianist, Millicent Chapman Cooke, who has the distinction of being a Licentiate of the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music of London. She has had excellent success as soloist in both this country and abroad. She is well known along the North Shore having appeared at the Evanston Woman's club and a number of other organizations. She is a finished artist whose rare ability and charm delights the heart of her audience. The very fine exhibition of camera studies by Stephen and Helene Deutch, will leave just as vivid an impression. grapher in her own right having, before and after her marriage to Mr. Deutch in Paris, been star photographer for Schiaparelli. These two young artists have grown steadily in their art and have had much success in the numerous exhibitions shown throughout the country.

Annual Studio Show of Tom Wilder Takes Place November 19-21

Just as sure as the week-end before Thanksgiving comes around the annual Studio Show of Tom Wilder, the Ravinia artist, is always ready for the inspection of his friends. This year will be the tenth in the series and the date will be November 19, 20, 21, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, from 3 to 10 p.m.

Artists usually get their most inspiring thrills from a trip to some place of scenic beauty, but one cannot be there and here at the same time, so this year Mr. Wilder has stayed home and painted autumn the North Shore to offset his trip last year to the Pacific Northwest. To be sure, there are no mountains along our North Shore, but it is strange what a realization of its beauty is borne in upon one when returning after a considerable absence.

It seems that the air is clearer, the clouds more perfect, the growth more luxuriant, the autumn color more brilliant than any other place on earth. Of course, this is not wholly true, but there is always a thrill in homecoming, and in the same way pictures of the home country are always dearer to the heart. Many North Shore people will feel just that way about the Wilder show.

All picture lovers are welcome.
