

DEERFIELD LOCALS

THANKSGIVING DAY

The congregations of the three Protestant churches — St. Paul's, Bethlehem and Presbyterian—will unite for a Thanksgiving Day service on Thursday at 10 a.m. in the Bethlehem Evangelical church. Rev. Earl J. Brusio will deliver the message, "The Art of Being Grateful," and the choir of the host church will present special music.

The Thanksgiving Day Mass at the Holy Cross Catholic church will be at 8 in the morning. Rev. J. V. Murphy is pastor of the church.

FREDRICKS-SCHESKIE WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fredricks have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Charlotte Ann, to Mr. Leslie Scheskie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheskie, on Saturday evening, December 3, at 8 o'clock, in St. Paul's Evangelical church, Deerfield. Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok will officiate.

VEHICLE TAGS

Requests for vehicle licenses of special numbers must be made at the Deerfield Village hall before December 1 or tags will be issued in numerical order.

RED CROSS

The annual Red Cross Roll Call is being made in Deerfield and Bannockburn. Mrs. Harry Muhlke is chairman for Deerfield and Miss Lucille Wright for Bannockburn. Assisting Mrs. Muhlke in the Deerfield Roll Call are Mrs. W. H. Potter, Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. Carroll Messick, Mrs. A. R. Warner, Mrs. Alex Willman, Mrs. John R. Armstrong, Mrs. Monroe McKillip, Mrs. A. F. Kaatz, Mrs. N. C. Lane, Mrs. C. J. Turner, Mrs. Arthur Merner, Mrs. E. W. Girton, Mrs. Harry Baum, Mrs. Friedel Fuller, Miss Barbara Ashman, Mrs. Paul Dietz, Mrs. Walter Page, Mrs. Raymond Dobbins. It is hoped that next year there will be a community chest to take care of all drives.

CONCERT

The Northwestern University Madrigal Singers will present a concert in typical sixteenth century style at the Bethlehem Evangelical church, 815 Rosemary Terrace, Deerfield, on Sunday afternoon, December 4. The singers will appear in costume, and part of their program will be the singing of old Christmas airs. This monthly vesper service will officially open the advent season at the local church. The public is invited. A freewill offering will be received. The concert begins at 4:30 p.m.

ROTARY CLUB

The Deerfield Rotary club will not meet this week but their next luncheon will be on Thursday, Dec. 1, at Phil Johnson's restaurant. Past President's Day is to be observed and Andrew Decker and W. A. Bickford are in charge of the program. On December 8 Nick Bree will be the Rotarian of the day. The next two programs will be devoted to the Christmas theme. New members at the last meeting are Dr. Edward F. Munro, dentist; and Lester Ball, grade school superintendent. At a previous meeting Norman Watson, superintendent of the Northbrook high school, became a member. The membership now includes 25 business and professional men from Deerfield and Northbrook.

BAZAAR AND DINNER

The annual bazaar and dinner of the women's organizations of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will be held on Thursday afternoon and evening, Dec. 1. The bazaar will open at 2 p.m. and the serving of the dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. There will be booths for fancy work, bakery goods, candy, white elephants, rag rugs, and grab-bag. Each of the four circles will have a booth and there will be one general one for the association. Reservations for the dinner are not necessary, but will be appreciated. Mrs. Milton O. Olson and Mrs. Andrew Decker are in charge of reservations.

Mrs. William Neville and her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ray Robbins and daughter, Patricia, will spend Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Neville's only daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robbins in Arlington Heights. There will be four generations present at the dinner.

Mrs. Leonard Steffens entertained her bridge club on Tuesday evening at her home in Highland Park. Deerfield members who attended were Mrs. Raymond Dobbins and Mrs. Henry Petersen.

Mrs. Eugene Cooky will be hostess to members of Presbyterian Circle Four on Friday at her home on Osterman avenue.

Superintendent Lester Ball of the Deerfield Grammar school was the speaker on Sunday evening at a meeting of the Presbyterian young people.

A number of organizations are changing their meeting date this week because of Thanksgiving Day. The Chamber of Commerce is convening on Friday evening at seven o'clock at Shugrue's restaurant. The Royal Neighbors are meeting Friday evening in the Town Hall. Their following meeting will be on Dec. 8 when the annual election of officers will take place. Deerfield Rotary club will meet on Dec. 1 at Phil Johnson's restaurant at County Line road. There will be no meeting of the Rotarians this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wessling will spend Thanksgiving Day with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wessling, in Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kapschull and family will be the guests of Mr. Kapschull's sister, Mrs. A. A. Petersen, at Lake Como, Wis., on Thanksgiving Day.

Carl E. Bates will be home from Ames, Iowa, this week to spend the holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page and children will spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Protine in Elmhurst. Mrs. Page and Mrs. Protine are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Mayer are driving down to Brownstown, Ill., over the holidays to be with Mrs. Meyer's father, Adam Courson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Peterson, 545 Deerfield road, were hosts at a turkey dinner on Sunday to their children and families from Palatine, Forest Lake and Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schroeder of Crystal Lake were Sunday dinner guests at the Carl T. Anderson home.

The principals of the various grammar schools in the Deerfield-Shields high school district met for their monthly dinner meeting on Wednesday evening at the Open House tea room in Deerfield.

John Engstrom and Richard Merner, members of the University of Illinois band, came up from Champaign last week-end for the Chicago game and spent Sunday with their parents in Deerfield. Among those from the U. of Ill. who will be home this week for Thanksgiving holidays are John and Helen Engstrom, Dick Merner, David Inman, Jr., William Fischer, Richard Stem, Freda Boone and Harold Frost.

Mrs. Alice Aten, who lives at the N. C. Lane home on Hazel avenue, is visiting in Kansas.

Miss Emada Griswold, teacher of French at the Highland Park high school, was the speaker at the Bethlehem Fireside club on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

William Stem Jr., and gave a most delightful talk on her trip to France.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strong of Greenwood avenue have a son born on Wednesday, November 16, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Harris have named their new little son David Arthur. He arrived at the Highland Park hospital on November 14.

Mrs. G. R. Bailey was called to Minneapolis last week because of the death of her mother, Mrs. Harry Soady. Mr. Bailey's mother was a guest at their home while Mrs. Bailey was in Minnesota.

Mrs. David Inman will be hostess to members of the Just Sew club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Beverly place.

Graeme E. Young of North Chestnut street was recently granted a patent on a stage construction for the theater.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Muhlke were remembered by their neighbors with many gifts on Sunday in honor of their 54th wedding anniversary. Many called that day to offer congratulations.

Miss Betty Muhlke will have as her luncheon guests on Friday Miss Betty McMahon, Miss Betty Kugel and Miss Ruth Lidiker, all of Highland Park.
