GEORGE O. BLISS' ANNOUNCE ARRIVAL
Mr. and Mrs. George O. Bliss of Chicago are rejoicing over the birth of a son, Henry Edison Bliss, born Monday, December 5, at the Evanston hospital. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith Farleigh of Mount Claire, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. George Edison Bliss of N. Linden avenue.

NORMAN EVANS TO BE MARRIED DECEMBER 16
Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Ione Reincke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arno B. Reincke, 531 Hinman avenue, Evanston, to Norman Evans, son of Elmer Evans of Central avenue. The wedding will be quietly solemnized on the evening of Friday, Dec. 16, at 8:15 in Christ church, Winnetka, with the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard officiating. Following the ceremony there will be a small reception for members of the families at the Reincke home.

Attending the bride-elect will be Miss Primrose Selden of Cedar Rapids and Miss Catherine Johnson of St. Charles. Mr. Evans has asked Carl Johnson of Highland Park to be his best man, and ushers will be Charles Reincke and Harold Evans, brothers of the bride.

After a motor trip in the south Mr. Evans and his bride will live in Chicago.
Recent parties for Miss Reincke have included a pantry shower given by her aunt, Mrs. W. D. Falk of Chicago; a lingerie shower at which Miss Marjorie Wells of Evanston was hostess, and a kitchen shower by Miss Marjorie Reincke of 838 Judson avenue, Evanston, a sister-in-law of the bride. Another of her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Arthur Reincke, will entertain at luncheon and bridge Tuesday, Dec. 13.

BRANCH-CAZEL WEDDING
Miss Marjorie Jayne Branch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Branch, 1316 Maple avenue, Evanston, chose the quiet simplicity of the Howes Memorial chapel as the setting for her wedding on Thanksgiving eve to Maurice H. Cazel of Deerfield. Dr. Douglas H. Cornell of the Glencoe Union church performed the marriage rites at 4 in the afternoon, and immediately afterward the young couple greeted their wedding guests informally in the foyer of the church. That evening Mr. and Mrs. Branch were hosts at a family Thanksgiving dinner party at the Medinah Athletic club.

For her wedding the bride chose an attractive afternoon frock and hat of royal blue velvet and in the palm of her right hand she carried a few grains of the bridal rice, which her parents had shaken from their traveling costumes following their wedding a quarter of a century ago. An orchid corsage completed her costume. Miss Barbara Jean Branch, a junior at Evanston High school, who was her sister's only attendant, wore on identically fashioned gown and hat of velvet in 'dregs of wine' shade. Her flowers were yellow roses. Best man for Mr. Cazel was his brother, Edward, and Steven Chase of Highland Park ushered.

Mr. and Mrs. Cazel will live at 540 Briar place, Chicago on their return from a short wedding trip.

BARACA CLASS TO MEET
The Baraca class of the First United Evangelical church will hold their monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mr. Fred Gieser, 419 McDaniels avenue. A special feature on the program of the evening will be moving pictures of interesting travels.

SELLAR BULLARDS VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Sellar Bullard of Far Horizons, Golita, Calif., and former residents of this city, are visiting their many friends here this week and next. While on the North Shore they are staying at the Palmer House in Chicago. Many informal parties are being planned for the Bullards including a supper party given by the Samuel Holmes' last Sunday evening. Miss Priscilla Carver is entertaining at a luncheon today (Thursday) and Mr. and Mrs. Roland T. R. Hastings will be hosts at a small dinner party Saturday evening. Next Tuesday Mr. Bullard's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Woodbridge Dickenson, in St. Joseph, Mich.

The Bullards are expecting their eldest daughter, Carolyn, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howland, home from Athens, Greece, around the first of the year for a month's visit.
The Bullards' younger daughter, Clara Jean, and her fiance, John Russel Holmes, are postponing their wedding for a few months. They had intended to be married in January because Mr. and Mrs. Howland would be here then—but that was before they learned that the travelers were not returning to Greece. Young Mr. Holmes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Holmes and his sister, Alice, both are living in California. They will spend Christmas with the Bullard family.
