Mission Begins at Holy Cross Church Sunday, December 11

A noted preacher and missionary, Rev. L. A. Services will be held in the mornings with Mass and instructions, while the principal sermons will be delivered in the evenings. During the first few days of the week special services will be held during the day for the children. The full schedule of the mission will be announced on Sunday in the church. Everyone is welcome for the services which it is hoped will mark a renewal of religious fervor in every member of the parish. Rev. J. V. Murphy is pastor of the Deerfield church.

Many times in this column I have pleaded for sane and sensible enforcement of traffic laws. We must have officers on our highways and streets to properly enforce the regulations pertaining to driving. More, we must have judges in our courts who can appreciate the danger involved when people become reckless in their driving habits.

Recently, in my own country, two cases of drunken driving were dismissed by the court. This is not only discouraging, but it is a deplorable condition and one that should not exist. When the evidence clearly points to the fact that drivers were picked up because of drunk, reckless driving and that the officers were unbiased in their opinion, the court should enforce the laws on the statute books.

It is the duty of every citizen to protest lenient decisions on the enforcement problem. Leniency only encourages the man who has no respect for the rights of others and who, on the highway, is a menace to the safety of ourselves and our children.

Please, Mr. Citizen, help enforce the traffic laws.
