Sunday Evening Club To Present Dickens Play

Seven Small Tiny Tims, seven lean Skroogers, seven jovial Bob Cratchetts, have been in keen competition during the past weeks for a place in the all-star cast to be selected from the seven branches of the Chicago Boys Clubs for the Christmas play which will be staged Sunday, Dec. 11, at the Chicago

Sunday Evening club in Orchestra Hall. The pages of Dickens beloved and immortal "Christmas Carol" will be opened for another Christmas, and out of a real six foot book, designed after the illustrations of Everett Shinn, will step the characters as they assume their individual roles.

A choir of fifty voices will furnish a musical background for the presentation, singing the best loved of the Christmas carols.

Proviso Defeats Local Basketeers 24-22 Friday Night

In a close and hard-fought contest, Coach Chuck Lauer's Highland Park high school varsity basketball team lost its Suburban league opener to Proviso Friday night coming out on the short end of a 24-22 score. The score as the last quarter opened was 20-13 when baskets by Bernardi, Hoie and Summers ran up the count to 21-22 and Zanotti tossed a free throw to tie the score with less than a minute to play.

Mack, tall Proviso guard sank his fifth basket from the center of the floor and his sixth basket of the evening to win the game for Proviso. Evidently frightened by the huge Proviso gym, Al Werbelow's Fresh-soph outfit failed to find the hoop and lost 32-12.

Highland Park plays at Oak Park next Saturday night.

Kenneth P. Boulton Former Resident Dies in California

Kenneth P. Boulton former resident of Highland Park, died at his home in Beaumont, Calif., on Dec. 2. Burial services were read Tuesday by the Rev. Christoph Keller, the pastor of his old church in which he had always taken an active interest. Interment was at Lake Forest to which beautiful cemetery he had been brought to rest in the family burying ground.

Mr. Boulton was the son of Geo. D. Boulton who was an early settler and leader of this community. His early life was spent here where he took an active interest in the village life and was respected and beloved by all who knew him.

While living here he was connected like his father with the First National Bank of Chicago and later moved to California, where he became interested in fruit growing. His funeral service which was held at Beaumont was attended by great numbers of people who came from far and near and attested the love and affection in which he was held by all because of his many kind deeds. His passing being quoted as a local calamity.

Pneumonia Fatal to Florence Briscoe

Florence Briscoe, thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Briscoe, 30 Oak Lane, died Sunday evening following a brief illness of pneumonia. The girl was a member of the eighth grade of the Deerfield school.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Kelley's chapel. Burial was in Mooney's cemetery.
