RENTALS

W. R. Mitchell, local real estate broker, has been busy the past month and the following rentals were made through his office. Frank C. Peers has rented the second floor west apartment in Briarview apartments on Deerfield road and has moved here from Decatur. Mr. Peers is the father of Mr. Frank Peers, a teacher in the Highland Park high school. "Briarview" is the new name of the Harry E. Wing modernistic apartment building, which is now completely occupied. Theodore Novak has taken a three year lease on the Hohlfelder store at 679 Waukegan road, the former Loretta Heman restaurant. Mr. Novak has been a chef with the Fred Harvey restaurants of railroad fame, and is planning to open a high class restaurant on January 2, to cater to the needs of Deerfield and vicinity.

M. M. Dunbar has rented the Ramsay house in the Landis subdivision and moved here last Wednesday. Mr. Dunbar is vice-president of Lighting Products, Inc., who have opened a factory and general office at Blodgett in Highland Park. The Dunbars recently sold their Chicago home.

FIRES

Fire in the Deerfield depot was averted on Sunday evening by the alertness of a neighbor. Smoke was pouring from the windows of the depot at 10 p.m. and it was thought that the entire structure was afire. Fire Chief Conrad Uchtman and the night watchman, Otto Gieske investigated and found that the smoke pipe of the chimney had accidentally been dislodged and that smoke from a heavily banked fire was belching forth heavy clouds. Fire Chief Uchtman reports that constant vibration of trains had loosened the sections of chimney pipe leading to the brick chimney and it had fallen apart. One can only hazard a guess as to what could have happened. The depot has caught five several times previously.

with considerable damage. Other calls made by the fire department last week were to control grass fires near the Merner and Kamminga homes.

RED CROSS

The annual Red Cross Roll Call has just closed in Deerfield and Mrs. Harry Muhle, chairman, and her staff of workers were greatly encouraged by the fine response of Bannockburn and Deerfield. The total amount collected was $238.00 of which $92.00 was Bannockburn's generous contribution.

Charles Orsborn, member of Bradley Tech's "Famous Five," together with the other members of the nationally famous basketball team, left Friday for a western trip, stopping enroute at Lincoln, Neb., defeating the Cornhuskers Saturday and proceeding to Albuquerque where they will meet the team from the University of New Mexico. From here they will journey to California where on December 22 they will clash with the powerful University of California quintet. Upon their return to Peoria December 26, they will play the University of Oregon, Northern Pacific Coast champions, Southern Methodist, and Yale University.

Marilyn Gooder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seth M. Gooder, 1247 Deerfield avenue, and Charles Kapschull, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kapschull, 814 Spruce, Deerfield, will be among the students of Lake Forest college who will be on vacation from December 17 to January 3. Both Miss Gooder and Mr. Kapschull are freshmen at Lake Forest.

Miss Irene Rockenbach attended the Christmas party for the nursery children of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Chicago, where she is a teacher.

Mr. L. Carroll Messick has gone to Kansas City, where he has been transferred by his firm. Mrs. Messick and daughter will join him after the first of the year. The Messicks have been living on Greenwood avenue.

The Christmas party for the children of the Holy Cross parochial school was held Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heybeck (Almira Rockenbach) of Lake Zurich visited their aunts, Misses Viola and Irene Rockenbach of Elm street on Wednesday.

Ray Wessling of Des Moines, Ia., spent Sunday at the George Stanger home. The senior Mr. Stanger is still confined to his bed but reports of his condition are very favorable. Tuesday, Dec. 27, is to be the 55th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Stanger.

Mrs. Fred Trute (Arlene Roggow) who underwent a goiter operation last month at St. Joseph's hospital, Chicago, is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roggow.

James Hvale of Valley Forge, Deerfield, will speak at a meeting of the Lake County Art League on "Art and Metal Work" on January 9, at the home of Mrs. Rush Hussey in Waukegan. He will bring with him samples of the exquisite work done in his little shop just east of the Deerfield C. M. & S. P. depot. Last week he spoke at another meeting in Waukegan and told the very interesting origin of his "Valley Forge" and displayed many of his designs in metal work.

Jack Johnston will come from Buffalo, N. Y., this week to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Johnston of Fair Oaks avenue.

Mrs. Henry Segert Sr. has moved from her home on Forest avenue and is staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Woodman Todd. Mrs. Segert, who is 83 years old, has been ill recently. Mrs. Earl Hurt entertained her Friday bridge club last week at her home on Central avenue.

Miss Jane Warner has been a patient in the Presbyterian hospital because of a throat infection.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mailfald were guests at the John Mailfald home in Wilmette last Friday. On Saturday they attended the funeral of Mr. Mailfald's aunt, Mrs. Christian Erbe in Caledonia, Wis. She was 91 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mailfald and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horenberger were among those from this vicinity who attended the funeral of Mrs. Christian Erbe in Caledonia, Wis., last Saturday.

Mrs. C. R. Surden has as her guest her mother, Mrs. Hawthorne, who arrived this week from Canada to visit here for several months.

Miss Evelyn Theroux and Hiram Reeder of Northbrook were guests of Mildred Love Gunkel on Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Dunn and daughters, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Clyde Belcher of Lake Forest and Mrs. Joseph Stevens and children of Lake Bluff visited at the home of Mrs. Martha C. Love on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page will have as their guests on Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. Fred Protine and children of Elmhurst. Mrs. Page and Mrs. Protine are sisters.

Mrs. Chester Wolf, librarian, announces that the Deerfield Public Library will not be open on Monday, Dec. 26 nor on Monday, Jan. 2.

Mrs. C. Johnston Davis was hostess to the Just Sew club last Tuesday afternoon at her home on Deerfield road. Mrs. Davis is recuperating from her recent serious illness. The next meeting of the Just Sew club will be on December 27, with Mrs. Andrew Decker as hostess.

The Neighborhood club met on Saturday evening at the Samuel Rockenbach home. Out of town guests were William Hartman and Earl Johnston of Lockport, Ill.

Mrs. Leslie Brand was hostess at luncheon and bridge on Friday at her home on Brand lane. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. Delbert Meyer was hostess at a Christmas party for the teachers of the Deerfield and Wilmette Grammar schools on Monday evening at her home on Sunset court.
