LEACH-RUFFNER NUPTIALS

Only the families and most intimate friends were present Saturday at the marriage of Miss Louise Lenore Ruffner, youngest daughter of Mrs. William R. Ruffner and the late Mr. Ruffner, and Edward Alfred Leach of Schenectady, N.Y., which took place Saturday afternoon in the home of the bride's mother at 4:30 o'clock. The Rev. Christoph Keller, rector of Trinity church read the service.

The sun parlor, where the service was read, was banked with ibotium ferns, but otherwise the decorations were quite simple.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown, which was unaltered for the occasion, was of ivory satin with a fichu puff and sleeves of rosepoint lace. Her long tulle veil, was banded with pearls, and she carried gardenias, lilies of the valley and white sweet peas.

Mrs. Harrison Tyler Todd and Mrs. E. B. Wintersteen, their sister's only attendants were in silvery taffeta gowns made with swirling skirt. The bodice and off the shoulder neckline were outlined with narrow puffs of taffeta. Their sandals were of coral to match the euphorbia mixed in with their bouquets of daffodils and small purple iris.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin Thomas I. Underwood. James Kilander, also of Schenectady, N.Y., was best man while the bride's two brother-in-laws served as ushers.

Mr. Leach and his bride will make their home in Schenectady, where her two other sisters now reside. Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Wintersteen will remain here a week or so longer, seeing old friends.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Alfred G. Leach, of Wrentham, Mass., and his sister, Mrs. Arthur Chubbuck, are here from the East for the wedding. It also brought a guest from another direction, Burridge Butler, who came from Phoenix, Ariz., where he is spending the winter.

A Telephone Rang in Illinois!

A telephone rang in Illinois, and a mother talked with her son. A farmer heard the price of corn, a merchant wrote an order, news from a hospital eased an anxious mind. A telephone rang—and touched a thousand lives.

Good telephone service is one of the essentials of modern life, and the telephone business is conducted on that understanding. The 23,000 men and women who work for the Illinois Bell Telephone Company do so with a sense of public responsibility. Their tradition is to give you service that is courteous, dependable and cheap in price... in fact, the best telephone service in the world, at the lowest possible cost.
