High School P.T.A. Undertakes "Stunts" Program As Benefit

Stoges Stunts, a take-off of Student Stunts, is the latest undertaking of the Highland Park High School Parent-Teacher Association. The show will take place Saturday evening, Feb. 18, in the high school auditorium. A small admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will go to augment the High School Scholarship fund.

A preliminary meeting of the special stunt committee last week revealed considerable local talent among parents as well as faculty of the high school. Secret rehearsals are going on all over the district to be ready for the tryouts to be held Wednesday evening, January 25, at the high school. A casting committee consisting of Mrs. Henry Hawes, president of the P.T.A., Mrs. Carroll Binder, program chairman, Mrs. Francis Knight, treasurer, and Miss Elyse Rinkenberger, and Mr. Wendell Cannon of the faculty will review each stunt to determine which will fit best into a unified program.

A faculty swing band will provide some of the snappiest music Highland Park has had the opportunity to hear and skits, musical numbers, gymnastic antics will convince the younger generation that Life Begins at Forty.

Mrs. Walter Oweiss is chairman of the candy and food sale which will take place in the foyer before and during the show. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Harry Pier, Mrs. Earl Hyett, Mrs. L. R. Haas, Mrs. David Olson, Mrs. Henry Getz, Mrs. Walter Lillienfeld and Mr. Hamill, Miss Bredin and Mr. Davitt and Miss Buzard of the high school faculty.

There is still time to get in the show. Any parent with a child in high school is eligible. Any member of the high school faculty is eligible. Parents of alumni or alumni themselves will be welcome. This is an all-community show whose chief purpose is to let east meet west and north meet south. If you would like to take part and have a good idea call any member of the committee mentioned above.

Work

The morning sun is coming back to visit,
Its nightly journey now is done;
We humans rise to face our daily battles—
To count our blessings, one by one.
The splendid night has brought us peace and comfort,
We rested while the god of sleep
Prepared us for the battles of the morning
While bidding us to cease weep.

So let us gird our loins a little tighter
For each one has his work to do.
Our fiery friend will give us strength to battle,
In order that defeats be very few.
We owe a debt to lives that we are living,
A debt we're certain we will pay,
We owe a debt of work to all about us
So let us all be prepared today.

The morning sun to each one is a blessing—
It brings to all desire to work,
It blesses as it lines the clouds with silver,
Its rays are sharper than a dirk
To errant ones who often are reminded
That daytime is our Master's gift—
Let's rather steer the splendid ship of effort
Than on the raft of fortune drift.
