Francis B. Hogan To Discuss Dogs At C. of C. Meeting

Believing that "variety is spice of life," the program committee of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce will stray from the customary business lecture, and will present a discourse on dogs at the regular monthly meeting next Tuesday evening. The dinner meeting will convene at 6:30 o'clock at Hill's tea room,

150 Students Will Present 14 Acts in "Stunts" of 1939

Fourteen short acts involving one hundred fifty amateur performers will be presented at the Highland Park high school auditorium on Saturday night, March 18, as the thirteenth annual performance of "Student Stunts" makes its bid for another enthusiastic audience.

Three unusual individual stunts on the 1939 program will be a magician, a juggler, and a very bumorous solo skit. Jerry Baum, school hand drum major and national champion French horn player, will appear before the "Stunts" audience in a new role—that of a sleight of hand performer.
