Garden of Future Ravinia's Feature at Flower Show

The Ravinia Garden club will have a "Garden of the Future" exhibit at the Thirtieth Annual Chicago Flower Show to be held at the Navy Pier in Chicago from March 25 to April 2. The ideas worked out by the Ravinia club are that the garden can readily be changed and that the future garden will follow the trends toward more efficiency and beauty which are so evident in the modern home. There will be potted plants as part of the exhibit which from all reports is conspicuous for its brilliant color effect.

Those on the committee for the Ravinia Garden club are its chairman, Mrs. Stanley Grace and her assistants, Mesdames M. G. Kettner, Oliver Turner, H. Hudgins, J. Lytle, H. J. Bauldau, Charles DeLew, T. Uehling, Howard Bede, James Murphy and E. A. Harrington.
