"Mamba's Daughters" Ann Birk Kuper's Choice for April

On Monday, April 3 at 2:15 p. m. Ann Birk Kuper will present "Mamba's Daughters" at the temple in Glencoe. The reading is given under the auspices of the Sisterhood of the North Shore Congregation Israel and is open to the public.

"Mamba's Daughters" a play by Dorothy and Du Bose Heyward, is a dramatization of the book by the same name, written by Mr. Heyward. It is now on view in New York, starring Ethel Waters, and has received excellent notices. Such caustic critics as George Jean Nathan pronounce it impressive, and Broadway has labelled it brilliant. Surely by the time it reaches Hollywood, it will have become colossal.

The play follows the novel and tells the story of a mother's love and supreme sacrifice for the happiness of her child. Mrs. Kuper's fine interpretation and keen sense of artistry have become familiar to the entire community, and may be depended upon to do full justice to the work.

Tea will be served after the reading, and many find these afternoons so enjoyable that they have adopted them as an excellent way of entertaining guests. There is a small admission fee.

In the morning the board of directors of the Sisterhood will meet at 10 a. m. and present their annual reports. The regular sewing activities will go on as usual, with an interlude at the noon hour for a box luncheon.
