

Entertain Patients at Veterans Hospital Thursday Evening

Stupey-Smith Unit No. 561 sponsored an entertainment at the Veterans Hospital, North Chicago, last Thursday which proved to be very successful. Talent was secured from Highland and Highland Park.

The following program was presented: Camille Corso, Ballet dance; Helen Jane Robertson, Gloria Linari, and Violet DeBartololo, tap dance; Katherine Kenry, vocal solo accompanied by Dora Kruger with her violin; Miss Daleys Meja school of dancing—seven numbers all excellent; Ralph Southerton with his tamblers; The Oak Terrace Barn Dance group; The Bonetti Jr., Orchestra with three vocal numbers; The Kelly Trio with song and dance numbers; and vocal solos rendered by Mary Santi, Sylvio Mussarelli, Emma Picchetti, and Charolette Russo. The accompanists for various numbers were Alma Galassini and Florine McFadden Jablon. This program brought down the curtain with a great deal of applause.

The chairman, Mrs. Julie Reber wishes to thank all those who contributed in making this program such a success, including the talent, refreshments. She received the following letter from Mrs. Eleanor Whittington, the Recreational Aide, which will assure those who took part that their numbers were greatly appreciated.

My Dear Mrs. Reber: Thanks to you and your entertainers who gave so much pleasure to our patients last evening. They are all talking about the wonderful talent you had and the manner in which the show was conducted.

It was no small accomplishment to make over five hundred nervous patients forget their troubles for over an hour, and that is exactly what your whole group did. Will you please tell them again how indebted we feel and sincerely appreciate their generosity.

By Direction, Eleanor M. Whittington Aide (Recreational)

Youngsters Hobby Show Is Sponsored by Rotary Club Let's have a Hobby show! A Hobby show open to all the boys and girls of Highland Park.

Rotary Club of Highland Park is going to conduct a Hobby Show for boys and girls on Saturday, April 29. The hobbies will be on exhibit all day starting at nine in the morning and running to seven in the evening.

Annual Meeting of Tenth District Will Be Held in Chicago The Annual Meeting of the Tenth District Federation of Women's Clubs will be held on Thursday, April 6, with the Rogers Park Woman's Club as hostess club, in their clubhouse, 7077 N. Ashland Blvd., Chicago.

Mrs. Henry Rhode, president of the district will preside and Mrs. Fred R. Lufkin, General Federation press and publicity chairman; Mrs. S. F. Mirabella, Illinois Federation art chairman; Mrs. George A. Stevenson, chairman international relations; Mrs. Fred W. Waterman, chairman press & publicity; Mrs. J. H. Blumenschnieder, chairman Park Ridge school for girls; Mrs. Albert J. Pohlman, chairman program bureau and all former Tenth District presidents, will be guests of honor.

club, and Mrs. Rhode's response, after which the officers and chairmen of the district will give their reports, and announcement of the nominating committee's endorsements by the chairman, Mrs. Herbert V. Wood. A president and a first vice-president will be elected.

The afternoon meeting will be under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Barger, district literature chairman, and Mrs. P. M. LaRose, district music chairman. Mrs. LaRose will present Marjorie Elliott (Mrs. Charles H.), composer, pianist and soloist, who will play "Moon Moths" (poem musical setting) and "Tango" from the opera Gypsy Moon (written, directed and produced by the composer). She will also give the following vocal selections, "Beloved, Did You Come?" (poem by Ruth Cray Clough), "Three Little Maids" (first performance), "Hurdy Gurdy Man," and "Awake, 'Tis Spring," (poem and music by Marjorie Elliott.) Mrs. Elliott has appeared as composer guest artist before a number of music clubs as well as women's clubs, and is well known in the Chicago area.

Mrs. Barger will announce the winners of the essay, poetry, short story and drama contests, and Mrs. Rhode will present the awards. They were judged by Mrs. M. L. Purvin, trustee, Chicago Public Library, Mrs. Mary Young Guerout, former Tenth District literature chairman, Mrs. Helen Anderson, substitute English instructor, Waukegan Township High school and Mr. John P. Kirby, assistant professor, Lake Forest College.

The essay award was donated by the Women's Catholic Club of Wilmette, the poem award by the Rogers Park Woman's Club, the short story award by the Waukegan Woman's Club and the drama award by the Woman's Club of Evanston. The first prize winning essay and poem will be read by Mrs. Samuel James, chairman of the foundation for literature, Friends of American Writers, and the drama will be directed by the winner and enacted by members of her club.

The session will close with the report of the elections committee by the chairman, Mrs. E. S. Korson. Luncheon reservations must be made with Mrs. Chas. Freeman, 2711 Colfax Avenue, Evanston, University 6352, or Mrs. C. A. Valila, 7112 N. Paulina Street, Rogers Park 5967, before April 4th.

Deerfield Park Project Defeated at Election March 25 By a vote of 2 to 1, Deerfield voted against the proposed park district. There were three polling places and each of the three had to carry the proposition in order to make the vote affirmative.

The election was held on Saturday afternoon. Bannockburn approved the measure by a vote of 12 for and 4 against; the outlying territory in the township which voted in the Clavey's Ravinia Nurseries had 6 votes for and 5 against. Both of these communities carried the proposition, but Deerfield had 214 votes against and 83 for the district.

The vote: Community For Against Deerfield 83 214 Bannockburn 12 4 Outlying district 6 5 Total 101 223
