Troy Dill Crashes Into Train Sunday

Troy Dill, 21 N. Second street, recently purchased a $21 automobile. Altho only an old model, it would go places. Sunday evening Mr. Dill decided to go for a ride. Going west on Prairie ave., it is reported he failed to stop at the Waukegan intersection and proceeded west across the Milwaukee railroad tracks. A fast suburban train blocked his path and he crashed into the last car of the train. The driver escaped injury, but his $21 car was wrecked.

Joseph Giallanza Enters Field Of Voice Instruction

Joseph Giallanza, operatic baritone, is entering the field of voice instruction in Highland Park. He will accept pupils for instruction. Mr. Giallanza has been a very studious and industrious young man, with an outstanding background in musical education. He has studied under some of the most famous teachers in this country, and has made personal appearances at WBBM and other radio stations. At a concert given at the Highland Park High school a few years ago, Mr. Giallanza won considerable praise for his tone quality, and his unusual musical ability. Individuals interested in learning the art of singing may arrange for an appointment by calling H.P. 3174.

CARD OF THANKS. I wish to take this means and opportunity of thanking all of my friends and especially those who donated their cars, during our recent bereavement. Joe Genest and family.

Hold Rummage Sale Thursday, April 20

The Plymouth Chapter D.B.E. will hold a rummage sale on Thursday, April 20, at 8 North Second street (next to Walker the tailor). Doors open at 9 a.m. Donations of rummage will be appreciated from interested friends and called for. Phone H. P. 1398.

Evangelical Conference. Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg and Rev. H. F. Stensen will attend the 95th annual Conference of the Evangelical Church of Illinois in Elgin from Tuesday to Sunday, April 23.

Masonic Lodge To Hold Dance Apr. 17

The Highwood branch of the Guglielmo Marconi Mutual Society is holding its first annual dance on Saturday, April 16th at the Labor Temple, on North ave.

This is to be a benefit dance under the supervision of this recently organized branch. The admittance charge is nominal and an excellent orchestra has been procured. It is hoped that friends of the organization will give the affair encouraging patronage.

Arthur Kehrwald Reelected President of Highwood Board

In a hotly contested school election Saturday in the City of Highwood, Arthur Kehrwald was re-elected president and Roy Russell and Oscar Ahlberg were chosen as members of the Board, District 111 (Oak Terrace school). Russell succeeds himself, while Ahlberg had served the Board previously.

George W. Kenry, Floyd Peterson and Louis Diasparra were the opponents who were defeated.

MY ANSWER, MR. RONAN. You asked the candidates for Commissioner to express their opinion about the principles set forth in your platform, published last week. I have read this document with a great deal of interest. Frankly, it appeals to me very much, because for the first time it offers the citizens of Highland Park a plan. You are to be congratulated for your constructive suggestions, which, if carried out by our next city council, will return our beautiful city to its proper standing among our neighboring communities on the North Shore. Should I be elected I will support your plan in principle, reserving however, my right to be guided by independent thinking. It is my considered opinion that now, more than ever, Highland Park needs a conservative, but progressive business administration. On this principle alone, I ask the support of all voters. JEROME P. BOWES, JR. CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

ELECT Arthur H. Swanson City Commissioner. A man who believes a Public Office is a Public Trust. Election Tuesday, April 18.
