

WILSON'S Weekly MEMO by GEORGE RECTOR

The story is told of a young New York multimillionaire who was dining with a friend when the subject of a certain oriental sauce came up. The friend expressed an interest in sampling the sauce, found only in Turkey. Whereupon the y. N. Y. m. summoned his body servant and dispatched him then and there to Turkey solely to obtain the coveted condiment.

Well, personally, I think that is going too far. One should be able to satisfy his needs right here at home. At least that is the principle I am going on in the recipes given here. Perhaps, though, you won't mind if from time to time I suggest stocking some reasonable condiment or seasoning that you may have overlooked. They do tend to a meaty

WHAT TO FEED THE BRUTE?

This good woman is undoubtedly having a bad time of it. There's this and that on hand but she does not seem able to mold them into a meal. Perhaps I can help her... this is a discriminating family, I know there's a family size tin of Wilson's Tender Made Ham in the refrigerator. And there's a large can of tomatoes on the shelf, some onions in the bin, and of course rice. Good! Send Junior out for some green beans and rhubarb and here, Madam, is your meal!

Ham Risotto

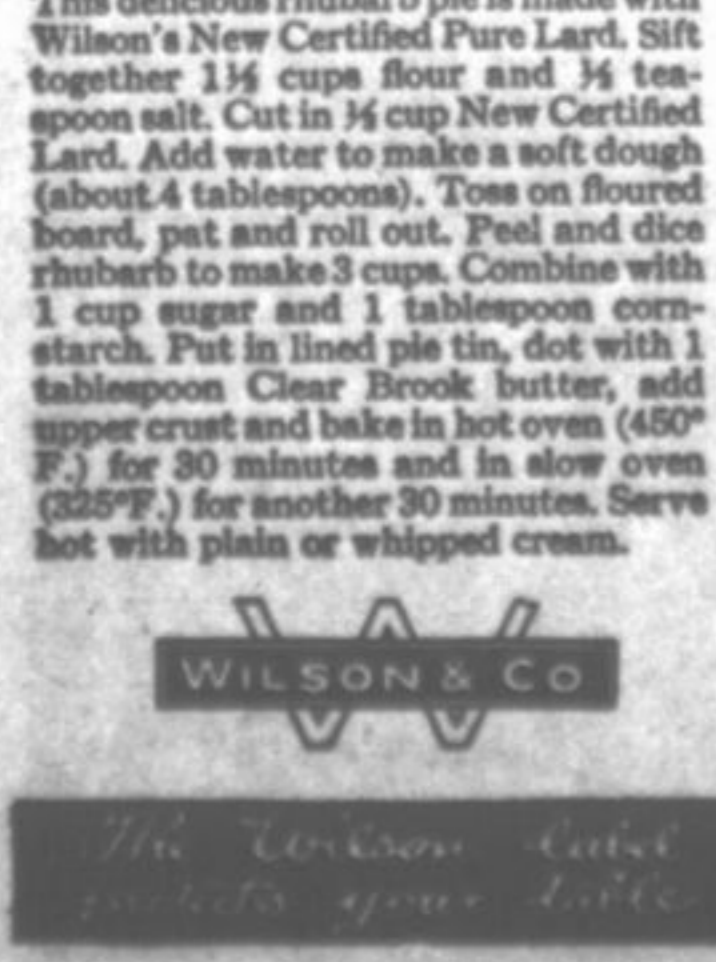

Cut 1/4-inch slices of Wilson's Tender Made Ham, and dice one cupful. Cook 1/2 cup rice to yield 2 cups. Mince half a green pepper and cook for 5 minutes in 1 cup beef broth. Add 2 cups canned tomatoes, drained, 1 teaspoon grated onion, and the cooked rice. Bring to a boil, add ham and cook till mixture is moist but not water. Season with a dash of Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper and paprika. Put a dab of Clear Brook butter on each serving.

Strain and season remainder of tomatoes for the cocktail, and peel small onions and cook slowly in broth or rest of bouillon until tender and the liquid has been absorbed. Season with salt and paprika.

IT'S A NATURAL!

The natural affinity which a stalk of rhubarb seems to have for two circles of pastry more than justifies its popular name of pieplant.

This delicious rhubarb pie is made with Wilson's New Certified Pure Lard. Sift together 1 1/2 cups flour and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cut in 1/2 cup New Certified Lard. Add water to make a soft dough (about 4 tablespoons). Toss on floured board, pat and roll out. Peel and dice rhubarb to make 3 cups. Combine with 1 cup sugar and 1 tablespoon cornstarch. Put in lined pie tin, dot with 1 tablespoon Clear Brook butter, add sweetener crust and bake in hot oven (450° F.) for 30 minutes and in slow oven (325° F.) for another 30 minutes. Serve hot with plain or whipped cream.

Madame Kurenko Russian Vocalist In Program May 1

Mrs. Robert Grinnell, has just been appointed to represent Highland Park on a North Shore committee headed by Carlston Washburne of Winnetka which is promoting a benefit concert for German refugee work. The concert is being given under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee and will be held the evening of May 1, at 8:30 p. m., at the Skokie school in Winnetka.

The fact that Madame Maria Kurenko, Russian vocalist of international fame is giving the program promises an evening of rare musical value, for she has captivated audiences throughout this country and Europe.

Madame Kurenko is a coloratura soprano with a voice of unusual charm and artistry. She has won success not only on the concert and operatic stage but four different radio stations have given her important presentations and she has also appeared with leading symphony orchestras.

The American Friends Service Committee is just beginning to gain recognition for the widespread humanitarian work it started at the time of the World War and has maintained ever since. During the famine in Germany and Austria after the World War when no other organization was willing to undertake the feeding of starving children the Friends set up relief stations and opened soup kitchens with supplies sent from England and the United States to help a suffering people. It is because of this piece of work that the German government listened to the plea of a delegation of three Quakers who went recently to Germany and consented to allow them to assist refugees forced to find homes elsewhere. The Quakers are the only non-conformist organization allowed in Germany today. The Friends who do not believe in war have never taken sides in their rendering of help to the victims of war or persecution. Their Vienna center helped the socialist victims of the Dollfus purge some years ago and later on those who suffered under the Schussnigg administration. Their workers have been on both sides of the lines during the war in Spain. In America the Friends maintain summer "labor camps" where members give their services in certain underprivileged communities to provide a particular need such as a playground for children or improved sanitation.

Listen! The Siren Village Fireman Again On Their Way

Here's the one opportunity for everyone in the Village of Deerfield to do his bit for the organization that stands guard 24 hours every day of the year ready to protect home and property.

The Volunteer Fire Department of the Village is holding its annual dance tomorrow night, Saturday, April 22, at the Briergate Country club. The dance floor is excellent and there will be good music and refreshments.

The men who respond to your calls for help, without any extra cost to you, deserve your interest and cooperation in this attempt to raise funds for the purchase of much needed uniforms and for the enlargement of a fund already started to assist in the purchase of a new fire engine. The idea originated two years ago and the proceeds from the two previous dances has been invested in Deerfield Building and Loan bonds. The firemen hope to be able to add a substantial amount to this nest egg from the proceeds of this year's dance and they will succeed if every property owner and householder in the village will buy only two tickets.

Why not plan to enjoy this Saturday night, dancing to the music of Reichardt's Melody Men at Briergate Club? Let's all help to make this dance a real success and encourage the firemen to carry on with the splendid idea they have started.

If you cannot attend the dance but believe that these men deserve your support, send your dollar to Russell Batt, Deerfield, who is in charge of tickets. You may be assured of the sincere appreciation of all of the firemen.

Miss Buzard, principal of the high school, Mr. Richardson, director of research, and the two deans will be at the meeting. The staff of the Grammar school will also be on hand. A great part of the time of the meeting will be given over to the answering of parents' questions.

"Jane Eyre" To Be Presented In May At High School

Pride and Prejudice, Helen Jerome's stage adaptation of Jane Austen's novel of the same name, was a stage hit on Broadway; and its performance at the Highland Park High school last spring was the highlight in the school's dramatic history. As a play, Pride and Prejudice was distinguished by a sensitive and faithful translation of the story and by the dramatist's skill in preserving the atmosphere, characters, and wit of Jane Austen's novel. Helen Jerome's fine performance is repeated in Jane Eyre, the play to be presented by the high school next month.

The story, of course, is that of Charlotte Bronte's novel "Jane Eyre" but Miss Jerome's remarkable achievement is in adapting the bitterness that hangs over the tortured owner of Thornfield, and his increasingly passionate love for the delicate girl who is his daughter's governess, to the theater. She has captured the elusive wit of the novel and the lightness of fancy which enlivens it and presents it from ever becoming too completely sombre.

One's first thought, no doubt, would be that a cast of high school students could not successfully portray the poignant and subtle emotions that pervade a play like Jane Eyre; but those who saw Pride and Prejudice will no doubt agree that these modern young thespians are more than equal to the task. One of the high school's most talented young actresses is Patsy Haynes who will play the title role in Jane Eyre, a role made famous two seasons ago by the eminent motion picture star, Katherine Hepburn.

Community Archery Tournament To Be Held Sunday, May 21

Highland Park is going to have its first community-wide Archery tournament. This should be good news for the many Archery enthusiasts who have been making and getting ready with their bows and arrows, for that grand weather just around the corner.

The date set for this interesting event is May the 21st, which is Sunday afternoon.

There are to be four classes of competitions: (1) Men's American Round, (2) Women's Columbian Round, (3) Junior American Round for Boys, and (4) Junior Columbian Round for Girls. Next week's paper will explain more completely the number of arrows and distances in the various rounds mentioned.

There should be considerable interest aroused in this coming tournament because there are several archery groups meeting and practicing the sport. Some of these are Mr. W. E. Cunningham's Afternoon group, and his Adult Education Night School Group; also Mr. Sidney Morris's groups of Girl Scout classes.

This Tournament is being sponsored by Community Service of Highland Park (inc.), and further information can be had by calling Mr. Geo. Schueschenpflug (Mr. X) phone 2693.

In the meantime all you Toxicophiles had better get out those bows and arrows and begin practicing.
