Edwin E. Tullis for the past week left Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Tullis, for a ten day stay in New York when Mrs. Tullis will return to Highland Park and Mrs. Wood will join her husband, General Wood in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Tullis and children, Mary Elston, Robert and Teddie returned last week from a months vacation at Augusta, Ga., at the R. E. Wood winter home.

THOMAS-HANSEN WEDDING

A very pretty church wedding took place at the Bethany Evangelical church at 4 p.m. last Saturday, at which time Miss Dorathe Thomas of Crystal Falls, Mich., became the bride of Mr. Karl Hansen of this city. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and flowers. Mrs. L. R. Hawley, organist of the church, played soft music throughout the entire ceremony in addition to the wedding march itself. Mr. Norman Hansen of Libertyville, a friend of the groom, sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly."

Miss Thomas was dressed in a gown of white Chantilly lace with net. She wore a finger tip veil and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by Miss Willa Thomas of Crystal Falls as maid of honor. Miss Willa Thomas wore a dress of pink net over taffeta with a stitched silk Bolero jacket, with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white snap dragons. Miss Doris Hansen and Miss Margaret Kuehne, both of this city, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were made of blue net over taffeta, with Bolero jackets and hats to match. They both carried bouquets of Talisman roses and snap dragons.

The groom was attended by Mr. William Dose of Chicago. The ushers were Dr. Carlyle Slabaugh of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mr. Orville Thomas. The ritual was read by Rev. H. F. Siemsen, pastor of the church, after which about 100 guests went to the Sheridan Beach hotel in Chicago for the reception and wedding dinner.

Following a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Hansen will go to house-keeping May 1st on Central avenue in this city. Best wishes and congratulations go to this fine young couple.

BABY BAPTIZED SUNDAY

Joy Suzanne Rumbutis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rumbutis of Roger Williams avenue, was christened in an impressive service of dedication at the Bethany Evangelical church, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A Statement By The Mayor and Commissioners Elect

The campaign is over. The voters of Highland Park have spoken. To those who disagreed with us at the polls we wish to express our assurance that our responsibility is to them, as well as to those who extended us such splendid and loyal support. We face many problems that demand unity of thought and action. That task will be simpler and lighter with the united support of all our people.

In assuming our new duties, we will do with a solemn sense of obligation and shall strive to win the respect and confidence of every citizen.
