Pictures of Local High School Life for P.T.A. Program

The Highland Park High School P.T.A. will meet Thursday, May 4, at 3 p.m. in the English club room. Tea and conferences with teachers will be followed by the annual business meeting.

As a summing up of the year of programs on the theme, "Know Your Own High School," Mrs. Carroll Binder has arranged for the showing of three reels of moving pictures

P.T.A. meetings throughout the year cannot help but have a comprehensive idea of the workings of an up-to-date high school. They have learned too the many advantages offered to their children during and after school hours. They have been given the opportunity to speak directly to their children's teachers in the time set aside for conferences. Surely this has been a splendid year for learning parent-teacher cooperation under the leadership of the president, Mrs. Henry C. Hawes.

Mrs. Herbert Smith

The Lincoln school P.T.A. will meet next Wednesday, May 3, at 8:15 with Mrs. Herbert Smith as the speaker and her subject is "Highlights on Education Legislation." Mrs. Smith, who is a school board member of the High school, is also a member of the Legislative committee of the Illinois State School Board association. There will be music too by some of Mr. Metcalf's band pupils.

Patsy Haynes to Take Title Role in Annual School Play

A cast of sixteen students will support Patsy Haynes in the title role of Jane Eyre, Helen Jerome's excellent dramatization of Charlotte Bronte's novel, which will soon be presented at the high school as its annual costume play of the spring season.

Rosemary Russo, star of "First Lady," "Pride and Prejudice" and other recent dramatic productions, will play the part of Lady Ingram, and Bette Hobes, another stage veteran, will appear as Diana Rivers, cousin of Jane Eyre.

The other fourteen characters, however, though selected from a host of contestants by the casting committee, will be appearing in their first major dramatic production. Headlining these new-comers will be Bill Peters, senior football star at the high school, who will be Mr. Rochester, austere owner of Thornfield, who falls violently in love with the governess of his child. Josh Nash will appear as the child and Jane Eyre, of course, is the governess. Louise Loman will play

Margaret Johnston Wins Championship in Swimming Meet

Swimming the 50 yard free style in 28.5, Margaret Johnston, a member of Miss Thompson's junior session at Highland Park High school, was winner of the Central Woman's Senior A. A. U. championship. The meet which is a national event, was held at the Medinah Athletic club in Chicago.

Miss Johnston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Parker Johnston of Waverly place.

MEET MARY'S MARVEL

Mary, the girl across the way, has a new husband, and to Mary, he's a marvel.

Confidentially though he isn't a marvel. He just looks smarter because he keeps himself epic and span the RELIABLE LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANING way. Why don't you call HIGHLAND PARK 177-178.

Three Stores Tie for 'In Swing With Spring' Window Display Prize

Much enthusiasm was shown by display managers of different stores during the "In Swing With Spring" week in creating exceptional windows. The Highland Park Chamber of Commerce offered a prize to the display manager of the store having the best window based on (1) sales appeal, (2) uniqueness, (3) attractiveness.

The judges were Mr. A. S. Bauer, general manager of Woolworth stores in Midwest, George Lyman, art director for Roche Williams and Cunningham, Chicago, and C. E. Thorney, advertising director of

A Statement By The Mayor and Commissioners Elect

The campaign is over. The voters of Highland Park have spoken. To those who disagreed with us at the polls we wish to express our assurance that our responsibility is to them, as well as to those who extended us such splendid and loyal support. We face many problems that demand unity of thought and action. That task will be simpler and lighter with the united support of all our people.

In assuming our new duties, we will do so with a solemn sense of obligation and shall strive to win the respect and confidence of every citizen.
