Band And Chorus Present Concert At High School May 12

Both the Band and the Chorus are directed by Harold N. Finch of the High School Music Department, a graduate of Oberlin College, a former teacher in Niagara D 9-11 Falls, a flute player and instructor in many wood wind instruments, whose deep knowledge and understanding of music make him an outstanding Director. The Band won first division ratings at State Music Contests, and playing in their attractive uniforms music of superior calibre receive hearty applause whenever they perform. The Chorus is a highly developed group of young men and women whose fine C 8-10 voices blend into a harmonious whole, and many of whose solo parts are exceptionally well rendered.

The following is the program of the Band and Chorus: Aguero, Paso-Boble
