

Catholic Youth of County Hear Talks on Communism, Sunday

With well over two hundred Catholic young men and women in attendance at the Holy Child high school auditorium in Waukegan on Sunday afternoon, the Lake County Catholic Youth Federation held its annual conference.

The topic for discussion this year was the timely one of Catholic Action Against Communism. In his keynote speech, Frederick Keffer, chairman of the conference, outlined the basic principles of communism and adjured his audience to unite in more concerted action against the movement which strikes at the very roots of our economic system. Warning that communism is spreading and that its adherents are working quietly but effectively in our very midst with most of us unaware of their activities, Mr. Keffer, told his listeners that one of the objectives of the conference was to bring more forcibly to the attention of the Catholic young men and women of the county the insidious methods of communistic propaganda and to devise means to combat and circumvent it.

In order to provide a basis for intelligent discussion of the subject, Vincent Zerafa, the first speaker, gave a vivid description of what a communist really is. In his paper entitled "Man—His Liberty, Rights and Authority," Mr. Zerafa explained the fundamental differences between Catholicism and communism. First pointing out that the communist of today is not the anarchist of yesterday with a long black beard, possessed of a leering countenance and homicidal tendencies with an urge to blow the world to pieces, but rather an intelligent individual who by insuendo, sympathy and false reasoning attempts to play upon the emotions of the unsuspecting and win them to the communistic fold.

The second speaker, Dorothy Stanton of Fox Lake, outlined briefly the tactics of communism in this country, showing how masquerading under the guise of fascist-hater and a lover of democracy, the communist, can gain the sympathy and approval of many otherwise well-intentioned men and women who, because of a lack of a proper understanding of the real reasons for and ulterior motives of communism are "taken in."

In the third speech of the convention, "The Tactics of Communism in These United States," by Miss Catherine Tibbetts of Round Lake, communism was scored for its attempt to trespass upon the rights of others when they do not wish to embrace the tenets of the Third International. The speaker cited the indignities and violence heaped upon a storekeeper of New York City who refused to be "taken in" by communist propaganda.

Consolidating the thoughts of the first three speakers and presenting a forceful appeal for Catholic Action Against Communism, the fourth speaker, Daniel Ward of St. James parish, Highwood, held his audience with the vigor and appeal of his arguments for combatting communism. Mr. Ward elaborated upon the remarks of the previous speaker and showed how if we can remove the social insecurity and economic unrest that is now sweeping the world, we will have removed the very cause of communism. Appealing to his audience to do everything it can in the way of concrete action against the widespread evils that beset not only this country but most of the world, the speaker expressed the conviction that only by a return to the way of Christ Himself can we hope to successfully combat the material evils of the world today. Better standards of living, higher wage scales for the masses and a more equitable distribution of the fruits of the labors of the masses will do much to mitigate the wave of "isms," particularly communism which today constitute so serious a threat to the economic well being of our country.

The final speaker on the convention program was Rev. L. J. Daly of St. Patrick's parish, West Lake Forest, who spoke on the importance of charity in all works of mercy whether those works are but a widow's mite or the offering of millions. Without the true spirit of charity which Christ has exemplified for us down through the centuries, our benefactions are nothing more than the material offering of wealth. Citing the proverb that as Christ has said, "What you do unto the least of men, you have done unto Me," Father Daly pointed out that all things that we do in the spirit of "love thy neighbor as thyself" just so will those things do more to rid the world of the hatred and fears that now beset it than all the legislation and militarism the world will ever know. In the hearts of men and nations, not in their pocketbooks lies the solution of our problem, Father Daly said.

Deerfield School Commencement on Thursday, June 8

The Deerfield Grammar school today announced plans for a number of the closing activities of the school year. The grammar school graduation exercises will be held on Thursday, June 8, at 8 o'clock. Mr. E. James Fucik of the High School board will be the speaker. A traditional graduation program will be held. Detailed announcement of graduation plans will be made next week.

Many other activities are planned and many have already been held. During the past week the various grades have taken trips to places of interest, such as Field Museum, Rosenwald Museum, Brookfield Zoo and etc. On Tuesday of this week the patrol boys of the school went to Wrigley Field in Chicago for a Cubs baseball game. This is a treat extended to the patrol boys at the end of their year of service. On last Tuesday the Eighth grade registered at the high school for their courses for next year. On Wednesday of this week the annual party given by the 7th grade for the 8th grade was held. This afternoon the annual 7th Grade Carnival is being held. This will be a gala affair for the 8th grade, including all the traditional material of a first-class carnival. During the last week of school most of the grades are planning picnics as finales for the school year.

The last day of regular classes will be Wednesday, June 7. School will close at the end of the school day on Wednesday, with regular class programs carried on up to this time. The Grammar school extends an invitation to parents and friends to visit the school during the last weeks and discuss with the teachers problems that should be settled before the end of the school term.

Flower and Garden Show to Be Held in Lake Forest June 3-4

The Lake Forest Garden Club Flower Show will be held Saturday, June 3, and Sunday, June 4, from 10 until 6 o'clock, on the Sheridan road estate of Mrs. Kent S. Clow. In the house will be staged unusual arrangements of flowers and accessories, attractively set dinner tables in especially decorated rooms, etc., while the more strictly horticultural exhibits will be displayed in the greenhouse. In the main dining room and on the terrace hot and cold drinks and simple refreshments will be served at a nominal charge.

In addition, six other of Lake Forest's most beautiful gardens, which are nearby and which will be plainly indicated by arrows, will be open to Flower Show visitors on these days.

Tickets, including admission to all of these gardens as well as the Flower Show, may be secured at the gate, or in advance by mailing check to Mrs. Clymer S. Bowen at Lake Forest.
