

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Knaak will move from Ravinia to the apartment in the Knaak building on Deerfield road which is being vacated by the A. J. Johnsons. The Johnsons will move to the home of the late Mrs. Philip Rommel the first of June.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf and Mrs. Harry Baum attended their bridge club in Libertyville on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Maurice Penny.

Kenneth Warner, son of Mrs. Margaret Warner of the Open House tearoom, is going to Washington, D. C., this week to visit his sister, Marjorie, who attends the American university.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Weir are leaving today to be away until July 20.

They will go to Asheville, N. C., and later to Santa Fe, N. M., where Dr. Weir will be an instructor in schools in those two cities for clergymen and lay leaders of the Presbyterian church. On Sunday, June 4, Dr. Robert Lee Sawyer, president of the Presbyterian college, will occupy the pulpit of the Deerfield Presbyterian church. The following week Rev. Ray J. Dollenmayer and his wife will arrive in the village and will live in the Weir home during their absence. Rev. Dollenmayer, a professor of Bible in Maryville college, in Tennessee, will take up the pastor's duties from June 11 to July 15.

KENNEDY-RUMMLER WEDDING

Miss Dixie Middleton Kennedy became the bride of Joseph M. Rummeler on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Morel van Schaick of Saunders road, west of the village. The Rev. Herbert W. Prince of the Church of the Holy Spirit in Lake Forest read the service in the presence of about forty relatives and close friends, and a small reception followed. Miss Kennedy is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Kennedy of Montgomery, Ala., and Mr. Rummeler is a son of William R. Rummeler of Chicago. The bride's sister, Mrs. James T. Edwards of Montgomery was her only attendant. Robert Rummeler of Milwaukee was his brother's best man. Mr. Rummeler and his bride will live in Chicago.

BANNOCKBURN GARDEN CLUB DINNER PARTY

The women of the Bannockburn Garden Club have planned a novel way to raise money for the landscaping of their school grounds. The beautiful formal gardens on the estate of Mr. and Mrs. William Aitken will be the setting for the buffet supper and style show on Saturday evening, June 17, at 6:30 o'clock and in event of rain will be held the following Saturday evening. The fashion show is being presented through the courtesy of Ruth McCulloch of Evanston, with professional models. The Aitken gardens will be flood-lighted for the occasion and will be a perfect setting for such a party. One of the Aitken's daughters, Mrs. Siebel C. Harris, is general chairman of the affair. Her sister, Mrs. J. P. Condon, is on the committee, and others who are working to make the party a success are Mrs. James E. Baggot Jr., Mrs. Albert W. Torbet, who is president of the club, and Mrs. J. B. Cleaver.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

At the Ma meeting of the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce last Thursday evening, it was decided to hold a carnival to be known as "DEERFIELD DAY" in August for the benefit of the Deerfield Community Center. The committee appointed by president M. A. Frantz includes M. A. Pottenger, Earl Hurt, Jack Kress, Clarence Schmidt, R. A. Nelson and Clarence Wilson. A committee of six more will be selected by Community Center to assist the Chamber of Commerce.

The slogan selected in a contest last year "Deerfield—That's Where YOU Should Live" is to be put on auto stickers bearing a picture of a deer, and given out to help boost the village.

Two instructors in the WPA recreational project in the Deerfield Grammar school who have resigned to accept private employment are Larry Waterman and Eric Banfield. Other members of the staff are Miss Marjorie Merritt, Miss Margaret Pfister, Eugene Seyl, Clifford Hammer and Dewey Deal.

Dr. C. A. Johnston Davis spent several days of this week in Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson and Mrs. Raymond Flinn of Highland Park were luncheon guests of Mrs. Albert Hunter in Oak Park last Friday.

Circle Three of the Presbyterian church met on Wednesday (yesterday) at the home of Mrs. George Pettis. Mrs. Pettis, who broke her hip and has been confined to her bed for three months, is now able to sit up.

Mr. A. H. Mulke will be 77 years of age on Friday, June 2. Mr. Mulke is Deerfield's oldest native son. Because of his illness this past year it is not likely that there will be a celebration.

There will be a remedial reading clinic in the Deerfield Grammar school from June 12 to July 15 each school day from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, with Mrs. Christine McMahon Knaak in charge. Full particulars of the summer school will be found elsewhere in the PRESS.

Charles C. Kapschull, past state commander of the American Legion, was the speaker at the Memorial day program at Oswego, Ill., on Tuesday.

The Semper Fidelis club is meeting this evening at the Bethlehem Evangelical church.

June first is the deadline for the purchase of vehicle tags and dog licenses. All residents must purchase and display a 1939 vehicle license.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stryker (Florence Page) spent last week at the Robert Page cottage in Wisconsin. Mrs. Herbert Frost took Mrs. Stryker's place as village collector at the Village Hall during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton O. Olson have returned from Cleveland, O., where they spent the past week. Mr. Olson was appointed by the Chicago Presbytery to attend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church which convened from May 25-31.

Miss Betty Warner is leaving the middle of next month to open their other tearoom, Open House, at Minocqua. She will take with her a group of college girls to assist her in the work.

The final in a series of vesper services at the Bethlehem Evangelical church will be held on Sunday at 4:30 p.m. Miss Margaret Moldaner of Highland Park and Robert Umbach of Osterman Ave., Deerfield, will present a musical program. Vesper services will begin again next October.

"Kippy" Nall was host at a dancing party on Friday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nall, in Bannockburn.

Mrs. William Stuppel of Highland Park will be hostess to members of the Contract Bridge Club at luncheon next Thursday at Open House tearoom in Deerfield.

Mrs. Victor Carlson was hostess to members of the commencement class of the Wilmot Grade school last Wednesday evening at her home on Stratford road. Her daughter, Lois, is a member of the class.

Fathers and sons competed in a baseball game on Thursday evening at the annual picnic of the Wilmot school. The game and supper were held at the school.

A group of Deerfield teachers were guests of Mrs. W. E. Hodgins, the former Ethel Titus, at a housewarming last Monday evening at her new home in Libertyville. On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Harry Muhlike visited Mrs. Hodgins.

Mr. Lewis Hayner spent several days of last week with his parents in Antigo, Wis., before leaving for the west. Mrs. Hayner (Ellen Fry) and two children and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Fry, will join Mr. Hayner in Washington later. Mr. Hayner's work has taken him from Washington, D. C., to the state of Washington. The Frys live in Mrs. Eugene Ender's home.

to Salt Lake City and other interesting places in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O. Dillon (Ross Wisneski) and son, Patrick, of Chicago visited at the William Smith home on West Osterman avenue.

The Mother-Daughter banquet of St. Paul's church was attended by one hundred ten mothers and daughters of the church last Thursday evening. The dinner was served by the men of the church and the young men waited on the tables. Mrs. Magdaline Mornitz of Chicago Heights, who is a past president of the Woman's Federation, was the speaker. Jerry Baum, youthful magician, entertained the audience with sleight of hand tricks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bingham and daughter, Sally, and Mrs. Bingham's mother, Mrs. Amelia Pyle, of Chicago, were Sunday dinner guests at the Ender home, on North Waukegan road.

The Deerfield Woman's Club will hold a dinner dance on Saturday, June 3, in the Briarcliff Golf Club.

The annual spring luncheon and card party of the Eastern Star will be held on Tuesday, June 6, at 1 o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

The children of the Holy Cross church will be confirmed on June 13.

This column depends upon its readers for help. If you have had a guest, or are planning a vacation trip, or a party, won't you let the Deerfield editor know about it?

The Altar and Rosary society of the Holy Cross church will have an outing on Friday (tomorrow). They will have luncheon at 1 o'clock at Rogalski's Union hotel in Wheeling and will then go to Des Plaines for a tour of St. Mary's Training school. The Rev. Father J. V. Murphy will accompany the society on the tour.

The Holy Cross Bowling league dinner is scheduled for this evening. Men of the teams will enjoy the annual banquet.

Let Nature Help You KEEP COOL THIS SUMMER!

Beat the Heat with a Low-Cost

ATTIC FAN

"Home Cooling System"

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS!

On sultry Summer nights after the sun has set, just open the first floor windows and turn on the attic fan. Immediately, you'll notice the change. Hot sticky air is pulled up and out by the fan, while cool, refreshing night air is drawn in through the open downstairs windows. Then whenever you choose, turn off the fan. Your home stays cool all night long—remains more comfortable even during the following day!

Easy to Install—Easy to Operate! Flushes out Hot Air... Pulls in Cool Night Air!

Does Summer heat turn your home into a "bake-oven"? Then rejoice—for there's a low-cost way to beat the heat. Install an Attic Fan "Home Cooling System" and let nature's refreshing night air keep your home cooler, more comfortable and livable—all Summer long.

Attic Fans are easy to install—cost but a few cents a day to operate. Why not investigate this economical way to Summer comfort—now!
