

Miss West's School Presents Pupils in Annual Program

On Saturday, June 10th, at 7 p. m., Miss Edna West will present the pupils of her school in the annual spring program and commencement exercises. These will be held in Witten hall on Central avenue in Highland Park. Many of the dances and songs learned during the year have been worked into entertaining "Mother Goose" playlet. Two marionette shows will also be given, in which the children's ability to handle puppets will be demonstrated. Examples of the children's handicrafts and school work will be on exhibition in Miss West's school on Laurel avenue following the program in Witten hall. Music for the exercises will be furnished by the Bonetti Jr. orchestra, who will also play afterward for a party given in honor of Miss Jessie Lila Montgomery, and former pupils of the school. Announcement is made that on June 1, Miss West's school is opening its new summer home-camp, and tutoring school near Lake Catherine.

Anna Tamarri Is Graduated from Coe College with Honors

Anna Tamarri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tamarri of Highland, who worked as managing editor of the Cosmos, Coe college publication, during the past year, was announced as the winner of first honors at the commencement exercises Monday morning. Miss Tamarri is the only 1939 senior to be graduated with Summa Cum Laude honors. Miss Tamarri has been quite active in college, having served as society editor of The Cosmos before assuming the managerial post which she held this past year. She also served as president of Eta Sigma Phi, Coedan and Crescent, as well as being a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Delta Epsilon, Phi Sigma Iota, Pi Alpha Theta, International Relations Club, Writers Club, W.A.A. and A.W.S. She was awarded the Knox scholarship prize in 1937 and was a member of freshman tenth, won sophomore honors and was a junior scholar. A prize of $5 offered by Phi Sigma Iota, national romance language honor society, for the best essay submitted during the year was also won by Miss Tamarri.

Charles Rosato Dies Suddenly, May 30th

Charles Rosato, who was well known in Highland Park and Highland, died suddenly on Memorial day at his place of work near Wheeling. He was born at Vanlensano, Italy, May 15, 1890. He came to this country in 1919 and has been employed in and about our city since that time. In 1927 he returned to his home land to visit relatives and friends, returning to his country again in 1928. He leaves a wife and daughter who at present are in their native land. Funeral service was held at Kelley's chapel Saturday at 9 a.m. with Rev. H. F. Siemsen as the officiating clergyman, and burial took place in Mooney's cemetery.

Present Pupils in Concert Saturday

The annual June recital by the students of Madame Rita Rothermel, pianist and teacher was held at the residence of Mrs. George Donnersberger, South Green Bay road, Saturday afternoon.

Among those playing was Mr. Carl Sands the young orchestra conductor. Master Freddie Kuttzen, 6 years old, who has been studying for two years, played Mozart and Beethoven. A "guest artist" was 18 year old Mr. Vincent Garcia Virtuoso accordionist and radio performer, thrilled the audience with a group of classics including Schubert Unfinished Symphony. Also in the precocious class was Miss Wynne Gardner, 9 years old, who plays the Masters delightfully and has the social ease of Queen Elizabeth. Refreshments were served and the party enjoyed a sudden blooming of a large peony garden under the beneficent rays of the June sun. Signed: Mrs. George Donnersberger.

Miss Genevieve Donnersberger of South Green Bay road graduated Thursday from Barat college, Lake Forest, "Magna Cum Laude." This is the second year she has attained the highest average in the college. Her graduating gift is a trip to California.
