District 108

Closing events in the schools of district 108 began last Thursday at Braside school with a field day program beginning at 2 o'clock with races and other track events and closing after dinner with a ball game between the boys and their dads. Dinner was served to about 225 parents and children in the auditorium.

An 8th grade class play in the form of a revised version of the light opera "Pirates of Penzance" was given at Ravinia school Friday night to a large and appreciative audience. A part of the proceeds will be used to help pay for the new sound motion picture projector.

The field and track events at Ravinia will be held Friday afternoon, June 9. There will be the usual program of races and games and a picnic supper with the parents at 6 o'clock.

The annual picnic supper and field day at Lincoln school will be held Monday evening June 12th. The program of events will begin at 5 o'clock.

Field day in the form of an all day picnic will be held at Ridge school, Tuesday, June 12.

Friday, June 9, the first of a series of graduation programs will be held at the Ridge school.

On Monday, June 12, the graduates will receive their diplomas at the Ravinia school. The Lincoln school program will be held Tuesday, June 13, and the Braside program, Wednesday, June 14.

School closes on Wednesday, June 14 for the summer vacation and will open the Wednesday after Labor Day, September 6.
