Since Highland Park women by the enactment of the Women on Juries law by the Illinois legislature are now liable to jury service a pamphlet just issued by the National League of Women Voters will be of interest showing the reasons why women should serve. The leaflet shows women's jury service at a national half-way mark. The reasons given were:

1. Responsibility of citizenship. Jury service is a form of participation in the process of government, tled me." a social responsibility that should be shared by all citizens-men and women alike.

2. Better balanced verdicts. The complementary viewpoints of women and men tend to result in better balanced jury verdicts.

3. Increased available number of qualified voters. The number of persons available would be doubled and many women would not need to be excused because of business 4. Why not? Women are in the courts in the capacity of plaintiffs, defendants, judges, lawyers, clerks, and stenographers. Why should the jury box be closed to them? Tht state of Illinois did pass a law on May 9 to give women jury service, altering the just-published map by one state and marking the half-way point in the achievement of jury service for the women of the entire country. Under the leadership of Ellen M

Vockey and . Mrs. Raymond S. Simons of Highland Park, chairmen of the Department of Government and the Legal Status of Women of the Illinois League of Women Voters, local Leagues of Illinois have for years made an active campaign in behalf of the jury service law. They observed a "Women on Jur-
