RUTH PETTIS, Representative Telephone Deerfield 485

VILLAGE FAIR

Residents of the community are invited to bring their flowers, fruits and vegetables which are unusual in size, or of particular beauty, or are peculiar in shape or growth, to the Deerfield Community Center where they will be displayed. Also, those having many varieties of any particular plant are asked to label them and bring them into the Center so that all may view them. If possible, those bringing flowers are asked to bring their own containers. The exhibit will be called the "Village Fair."

POST OFFICE

Postmaster John J. Welch makes the following announcement:

Sealed Proposals for the carrying of the United States Mails, (including parcel-post mails) between the Post Office at Deerfield, Ill. and the C.M.St.P.&P. railroad station, each way, as often as required will be accepted until June 17, 1939 at the Deerfield Post Office. The designated messenger will be expected to furnish such equipment as will enable him to handle all mail to and from each train on one trip, and such as will be adequate and satisfactory for the proper protection of the mails at all times. Deerfield is a second class post office.
