The annual Father and Son game climaxed the day of races, folk-dances, jumping, pole vaulting, etc., with the sons winning 17 to 11. The fathers started out very erratically, throwing the ball all over the lot and the boys took advantage to run up a good lead. Finally the fathers settled down to some sparkling plays holding the fading sons scoreless in the last 4 innings while the fathers were garnering a few of the much needed runs.
