Everyone likes to make mud pies, but not everyone does. Mrs. O. L. Olesen goes most of us one better. She makes mud pies, and she's not in her second childhood.

Mrs. Olesen's collection of creations has overflowed two glass display cases installed in the dining room of her home. Her figurines include dancing girls, boys watching sailboats, old men, and nudes.

In her cases, ashtrays, in the shape of old shoes, are common. Asked why she chooses old shoes for such a purpose, she replies, "Cigarettes make me think of old shoes."

Materials don't cost much, Mrs. Olesen recites, as clay is five cents a pound. But the firing and glazing, which she usually has done at Lewis Institute in Chicago, are more expensive.

There is infinite variety to her hobby, for she goes from one clay to another. The yellow clay has to be fired and glazed. Another kind will stay moist for years.

The washing machine is not a bugaboo to Mrs. Olesen. In fact, she has fun with it. It's part of a potter's wheel apparatus, her newest acquisition. The base is an old sewing machine, and an electric coil connected with the washing machine works the wheel at a regulation speed of 50 revolutions to a minute, which is easier for an amateur than the usual 70 revolutions. Mrs. Olesen dispenses with the wringer, and one end of the pulley fits in the side there. She is "prouder than a peacock" of this potter's wheel, which is a vast improvement over her first one. It too was a sewing machine originally. She had to work it by foot, standing on one foot and pedaling with the other, a not very satisfactory method.

Many of her clay pieces are used for gifts. She wishes she had "seeds of time" to work at her hobby. With deft fingers she is learning the tricks of the trade. In a wink of time, she can change a pug nose to an aquiline nose, a Jew to a Chinese, inquisitive eyebrows to haughty ones.

Queried as to how she came to be interested in such a field, Mrs. Olesen replied it was tit for tat. Eleven women, Mrs. Olesen among them, once signed up for manual training at the high school, and when it came to the showdown—or the showup—in classes, Mrs. Olesen was the only one who hadn't backed down.

Mrs. Olesen, 369 Moraine road, has been a resident of Highland Park for 48 years. She has two children, Harold Loeffel Olesen of West Orange, N. J., and Mrs. George Berg of Hollywood, Calif.

Girl Fliers Will Participate in Air Show at Curtiss

Girl fliers are scheduled to participate in special speed and novelty events during the all-day program of the second annual Amateur Air Show to be held next Sunday (June 25) at Curtiss Field, near Glenview. Thirty members of the Chicago Girl's Flying club and the famous "99s" organization will vie for handsome trophies, plaques and medallions.

Mrs. Alice DeWitt, who with her husband, Bernard, compose one of the nation's best known husband and wife amateur flying teams, will represent Ashburn Airport. Mrs. Mae Wilson, only woman airport proprietor in the United States—Wilson Airport, located at River road and Lawrence avenue, is another contender.

Dewey Biggs, representing Harlem Airport, and recognized as one of the foremost exponents of blind flying, has entered his Piper Cub plane in the novelty events. He will demonstrate the routine of an airman flying the radio beam, showing methods employed by pilots of commercial and military ships. Lloyd Adkins, famous smoke writer exhibitionist, will operate his Laird Speedster in exhibitions amidst the clouds. Major Arthur LaPointe, Jr., flying instructor at Calumet high school, will lead his cadets in formation flights.

Nearly 300 amateur pilots, private owners of stock light model planes with engines of 75 H.P., or less, will be in attendance from Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio. There will be a diversified program featuring precision flying, spot landing tests, bomb dropping trials and closed course racing amplified by special stunts and demonstrations by expert test pilots from leading airplane factories. Lieut. E. Verne Stewart, of Elgin, will give exhibitions of "chute jumping. Col. Roscoe Turner, world famed speed pilot, will be chief starter of the show.

"Sixty Special" to Be Displayed at L.F. Horse Show

Among the displays at the Lake Forest Horse Show will be several cars by Cadillac that are bound to attract the attention of discriminating motorists.

The "Sixty Special" Cadillac Fleetwood model shown will be a two tone brown with tan interior and a beautiful walnut trim, truly a harmony of color.

This outstanding car has been the style leader for the past several seasons and to meet the insistent demands, arrangements have been made to supply this model in a formal partition design which will also be on exhibition during the show.

A LaSalle touring sedan in a two tone combination of English gray and Ludington green will no doubt attract those interested in driving a quality car of that size and distinctive styling.

Other "Fleetwood" Cadillac models in addition to the Sixty Special will also be shown during the course of the show.

Clerk: And, remember, I've got something that can change the color of a man's hair overnight.

Customer: Yeah? I've got a son in college, too.

A couple of jars of Wilson's Certified Ox Tongue in Aspic is an essential on the pantry shelf as it will come in handy for an emergency. Wilson's Certified Tongue is ready cooked. It may be heated and served with spinach, carrots and hard-boiled eggs, or sliced, chilled, for sandwiches, a cold platter, or cut into tempting little cubes for appetizers. For a buffet supper or summer luncheon, Tongue in Aspic is a delicious dish, and most pleasing to the eyes."

DON'T GET A LOAN until you check this new plan

Read how you can borrow $100 without endorsers if you can repay $10.07 a month for 12 months. No credit inquiries of friends or relatives—No embarrassment or delay

THIS new loan plan makes it simple for you to figure how you can borrow what you need and how you can repay it. You get the money you need now and you repay in 2 to 20 months as best suits you. The faster you pay up your loan, the less it costs.

Suppose you need $100 and can conveniently repay $10.07 a month. Twelve installments of this amount will repay your loan in full, including all charges. Or suppose you can pay more each month—installments of $18.48 each will pay your $100 loan in full in six months. Or suppose you wish to pay less each month—$6.74 a month for 20 months will also repay a $100 loan.

Table showing monthly payments for various loan terms. Columns: Amount of monthly payments including all charges for the following periods. Rows: Cash You Get (from $20 to $300) and corresponding monthly payments for 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 18, and 20 months.

Choose the plan that fits your budget. Locate the amount of cash you need in the loan table. Then read across, picking out the monthly payment which best fits your budget. See how you can make very small payments if you wish. Or you can pay larger installments and pay up sooner. Note how little your loan costs if you repay in a short time. A loan of $100 repaid in four monthly installments costs $7.72. And to get a loan you need no endorsers. You are spared the nuisance of asking others to guarantee your loan.
