STERN-WARNER NUPTIALS THURSDAY

Miss Nancy Stern, daughter of the Alfred Whitall Sterns of Crescent court, became the bride of Dr. Robert W. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Warner of Buffalo, N. Y., Thursday afternoon, June 15, at the home of her parents. The young couple were attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Betty Warner, Miss Susan Mary Carpenter of Kenosha, Gene Warner as best man, and John Stern served as usher.

The newlyweds motored to the White Mountains and Boston, Mass., for their honeymoon, ending at Buffalo, N. Y., where Dr. Warner will start his internship at the Buffalo General hospital July 1st.

The former Miss Stern was graduated from Roycemore school and attended Rockford college. Dr. Warner, a graduate of Harvard university, completed his medical training this June at the University of Chicago Medical school.

FORETT-FELL ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Miss Pearl Forett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Forett of Waukegan, to Fred Fell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fell of McGovern street, was announced last week. The bride to be is a graduate of Waukegan Township high school and attended Lake Forest college. Her fiancé attended the Highland Park high school and Northwestern university and is manager of Fells Clothiers. The wedding date has been set for early autumn.

JANET SAATHOFF IS BRIDE

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Saathoff of 18 South Second street announce the marriage of their daughter, Janet Louise, to Leslie Alfred Southerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Southerton, also of Highland Park on Saturday, June 17. The wedding took place at 3:30 o'clock at their home with the Rev. F. D. Hopkins of the Central Park M. E. church, Chicago, reading the double ring ceremony in the presence of the members of the two families.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white organza made with a square neckline, short puffed sleeves and a very full skirt. She carried white larkspur and shasta daisies and wore a circlet of white flowers in her hair. She was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. George Harold Ehlen (Carolyn Saathoff) of Lake Forest, and Miss Virginia. Mrs. Ehlen wore a gown of wood violet marquisette and Miss Virginia, pink organza. They carried bouquets of colored larkspur to match their dresses and shasta daisies, and wore circlets of flowers in their hair to match their bouquets. Ralph Southerton was best man for his brother.

A wedding supper was served to the two families at the Open House Tea Room in Deerfield. Mr. Southerton and his bride are making their home at 104 McGovern street.

LOVELY GARDEN WEDDING HELD

In a beautiful setting of pink peonies, daisies and white dogwood, Dorothy Hammonk King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hammond, became the bride of James A. Falkenburg, son of Mrs. Arthur Calkins of Barrington. The nuptials were read by Rev. Drussel of Barrington in the garden of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock, Saturday afternoon. The bride, lovely in a gown of turquoise blue lace and net with a full skirt and pink sash, carried a bouquet of pink gladiolas and daisies and wore white syringas in her hair. Mrs. Richard Hammond, the bride's sister-in-law, as matron of honor, wore a pink flowered marquisette empire style gown and carried a bouquet similar to that carried by the bride. Little Hartley King served her mother as flower girl. She was attired in a turquoise blue taffeta frock. William Hammond, III, served as best man to Mr. Falkenburg.

A small reception followed in the garden which was a bower of summer bloom. The interior of the home was decorated in striped syringas and pink spirea.

The young couple left on a two weeks honeymoon in the North Woods after which they will make their home in Barrington.
