TENNANT-MORRIS WEDDING SATURDAY

A pretty wedding Saturday afternoon was that of Miss Isabelle Tennant, daughter of Mrs. J. Lufkin Tennant to Robert Ainsworth Morris, son of Mrs. George Huckins Morris of Evanston. The ceremony was read at 4:30 in the afternoon in the Tennant garden by the Rev. Frank Pitt of Grosse Pointe, Mich.

The bride wore a mouseline de soie gown, its bodice edged in valenciennes lace, and the Tennant twins, Barbara and Jean, the bride's only attendants, wore white pique dresses, simply cut, and forward tilted little hats made of two crisp pique daisies centered in yellow. Their bouquets were yellow daisies and lilies. The bride carried lilies of the valley.

Arthur Bamford Jr. was the best man for Mr. Morris and Eugene Husting, Owen Fairweather, Arthur Emerson, Jr., and Thomas Buchanan served as ushers.

After a week's motor trip through Canada, Mr. Morris and his bride will make their home in Evanston.

CAROLYN SCHEMSEL IS MARRIED

The wedding of Miss Carolyn Schemsel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schemsel, to Erwin A. Williams took place Friday evening in Chicago at the future home of the bride.

Miss Jeanne Cowgill, dressed in aqua blue silk chiffon, served as maid of honor and the bride's cousin, Miss Eleanor Puttgammer of Chicago, pink silk chiffon. The bride's dress, an old fashioned gown of white silk organdie looked like a filmy mist in the soft candle light surrounded by blue delphiniums and pale pink snapdragons.

Mr. Henry Head and Richard Magnussen of Chicago attended the groom.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Loeppert, pastor of the Methodist church in Chicago where the bride had attended in Chicago before coming to Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howard of Lake avenue entertained at a garden party supper on Sunday for the young couple.

Several parties are being planned by the bridesmaids and maid of honor to take place in the near future.
