Helen Margolyne to Sing at Wilmette Outdoor Concert

Helen Margolyne, beautiful and talented soprano of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, will sing with the federal music project's Illinois Symphony Orchestra in Wilmette amphitheatre under the baton of Albert Goldberg in the sixth of the free outdoor concerts next Wednesday evening, August 16.

The young soloist made her debut two years ago in a recital at the Civic Theatre. Last season she appeared with the opera company where she scored an immediate success and was re-engaged for her second season.

Miss Margolyne's selections for Wednesday's concert will be the arias, "Jewel Song" from "Faust" by Gounod and "Mein Herr Marquis" from "Die Fledermaus" by Johann Strauss.

Other numbers to be presented by the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Goldberg will include the overture to "The Secret of Susanne" by Wolf-Ferrari; Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 5; "Midsummer Wake," a Swedish Rhapsody by Alfvén; and Slavonic Dances by Dvorak.

Glencoe Community Chest Adds $300 to Playground Budget

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Glencoe Community chest on Tuesday, it was voted to add $300 to the original budget to help finance its enlarged recreational and educational program. This grant, however, Clifton C. Coldren, president of the chest this year, explained, comes out of current funds provided by the drive last fall. What the chest will be able to contribute toward the enlarged playground activities for 1940 will, Mr. Coldren said, naturally depend upon the success of the campaign for next year's funds scheduled to begin in October. H. Truman Redfield is chairman of the campaign committee.

The Glencoe playgrounds is one of the purely local welfare organizations supported by the Glencoe Community chest. It was started seven years ago with the idea of providing supervised summer activities for the children and young people of Glencoe. This year the work has been under the direction of Howard F. Copp, who came to Glencoe for the specific purpose of carrying through an advanced program of youth development. The playground activity, under Mr. Copp's plans is to be coordinated so far as is practical with other activities in Glencoe, so that the right mental attitude toward life and American institutions can be assured in the young people of the village.

Illinois Electricity Users Consume 13 Pct. More Power This Year

That householders throughout northern Illinois are using almost 13% more electricity than they did a year ago is indicated by figures released this week by Britton I. Budd, president of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois which supplies electricity and gas to the 6,000 square mile area adjacent to Chicago, including the suburbs and the outlying farm and residential territory.

Mr. Budd stated that residential customers of his company and the 22,000 farms were now using electricity at the rate of 950 kilowatt-hours a year, which is among the highest consumption averages used on the same basis was only 574 kilowatt-hours per year. This increase, Mr. Budd stated, has been due to three factors: the lowered rates which are being charged for the service, natural growth in the use of electricity in the ordinary home through the more general use of electrical appliances, and to the fact that electric lines have been brought to all but about 18 per cent of the farmers in this area who could economically use the service.

New home building has also been an important factor in the more recent advances made in gas and electricity sales in the territory served by the Public Service company, according to Mr. Budd.

Governor Horner Gives Trophy For Pet Show, Aug. 26

The Anti-Cruelty Society of Chicago announces the Golden Acres Pet Show to be held, Saturday, August 26, in Barrington. Governor Henry Horner, who is a resident of Highland Park during the month of August has donated a trophy inscribed "The Most Ideal Companion, Golden Acres Pet Show, 1939, donated by his excellency, Henry Horner, Governor," which will be included in the prizes.

Muriel Morris of Wauconda is in charge of first aid, while Mary A. Foley of Chicago is in charge of the entrance gate. Miss Lipofsky of Barrington is in charge of assimilating all pet entries.

There are no restrictions as to children or adult entrants. The judging will be on the pet itself as a pet, breed makes no difference. There will be a few prizes for the most ideal companion in both girl and boy divisions, but the greatest majority of prizes will be awarded to the pet because of some outstanding characteristic. All types of animals from farm animals to house pets are expected to be entered. All entries must be in by August 24.

Express Appreciation For Aid at Carnival Given by Parents Club

The committee of the Parent's Club Carnival wish to express their thanks and appreciation to everyone who attended the carnival and to those who assisted in any way to make this a successful affair. All proceeds derived from this carnival will be used for a most worthy cause.

The committee also is very grateful to Mayor Charles Portillo, the City Council, the Police Department, the workers at the carnival, and to the merchants of Highwood and Highland Park who so generously donated prizes for the Registration booth.

Everyone who won prizes at the Registration booth is being notified by phone or by card. The lucky winners are asked to call for their prizes as soon as possible at the office of the Ermine Cleaners in Highwood.

"Hotel Imperial" at Deerpath Theatre

A European frontier town on the edge of no-man's-land, with two mighty nations locked in a life-and-death conflict—that's the spectacular setting for the new film drama, "Hotel Imperial," which will play at the Deerpath Theatre Friday and Saturday, August 11 and 12, starring Isa Miranda and Ray Milland with Reginald Owen.

"Juarez," Warner Bros. brilliant new production starring Paul Muni and Bette Davis, will be shown at the Deerpath Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 13, 14 and 15. Supporting Mr. Muni and Miss Davis are such stellar names as Brian Aherne, John Garfield, Claude Rains, Joseph Calleia, Gale Sondergaard and a host of others. From an historical standpoint, "Juarez" is extremely important, for it depicts the only widespread Monroe Doctrine.

The combination of Gracie Allen's zany talents, a story by the late S. S. Van Dine, and excellent work by a large group of featured players equals one of the best mystery comedies to reach the screen in many a year. It's Paramount's picturization of S. S. Van Dine's "The Gracie Allen Murder Case," which will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, August 16 and 17 at the Deerpath Theatre with Gracie, Warren William, Ellen Drew, Kent Taylor and Judith Barrett in the featured roles.

WILSON'S Weekly MEMO by GEORGE RECTOR

The old query as to what women do with the time saved with time-saving devices is so old it positively drives you with Santa Claus whiskers. It's a wise woman who buys her canned meats, fruits and vegetables and then goes out to meet life halfway—or better.

OUT WITH THE FRYING PAN...

If you are wont to think of ham and eggs as co-starring only in a skillet, you will have to change your mind rapidly because in this next recipe the frying pan goes out of the window and the principals come together in a bread tin.

It is a cold meat pie, intended for luncheons or buffet suppers—an excellent way to use the shank end of a Wilson's Certified Smoked Ham.

Cold Ham Pie

1 1/2 cups flour
1/4 cup Wilson's Certified Pure Lard
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
4 tablespoons cold water

4 cups Wilson's Smoked Ham, cooked and ground
1 cup white sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
Few grains cayenne
4 Clear Brook eggs, beaten slightly
2 Clear Brook eggs, hard cooked

Sift flour with salt. Make pastry by cutting the lard into the flour until the mixture resembles coarse corn meal. Sprinkle on the cold water and blend to make a soft dough. Form in a ball and chill.

Put the ham through the food chopper three times. Press with the back of a spoon until smooth. Combine with the white sauce, beaten eggs and seasonings. Line a medium-sized bread tin with pastry and fill with ham mixture. At intervals lay in hard-cooked eggs, cut in lengthwise wedges, and a few pistachio nuts, sliced stuffed olives or strips of green pepper.

Cover with the pastry, decorate with a pastry rose and a few leaves, brush with melted Clear Brook butter. Bake in a hot oven (350° F.) for 10 minutes, then at 325° F. for 40 minutes more. When cool enough, set in refrigerator to chill. Serve whole, garnished with spiced beets or squares of tomato aspic. Yields about 15 servings.

CHINESE SWEET BONES

Although it is neither Oriental, sweet, nor bony, I can tell you this is a dish of unusually pleasing flavor.

To make Chinese Sweet Bones, you will require one or more of Wilson's Ready-to-Serve Meats, such as Mortadella, Salami Cotto or Larding Flavour Spiced Ham or Luncheon Meat. You can detour the Mortadella and Salami Cotto if you are not garlic-minded.

Here's how:

1/2 lb. Wilson's Assorted Ready-to-Serve Meats
1 Clear Brook egg
4 tablespoons Clear Brook butter
1 onion, sliced thin
1/2 cup celery, sliced thin
1 cup diced cucumber
1 cup water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons flour

Cut the meats in strips 1/4 inch wide and 1/2 inch thick. Roll in flour, then dip in egg slightly beaten, and roll in flour again. Melt the butter in a large skillet and brown the strips nicely on all sides. Add the onion, celery and 1/2 cup of water and simmer 20 minutes, covered. Add the sliced cucumber, seasonings, lemon juice and remaining water. Simmer covered for another 15 minutes. Thicken with the flour, blended in a little cold water.

Serve piping hot on a bed of fried noodles and garnish with pimiento and toasted almonds.

REMEMBER—WILSON'S D.C. MAKES TWO FINE DINE-IN BRANDS

1st. Wilson's Assorted Ready-to-Serve Meats in the Yellow Wrappers, ready to serve or just heated up.

2nd. Wilson's Tender Extra Meats Certified SMOKED Ham in the Pink Orange Wrappers. To be cooked just over the water way.
