ANNOUNCE ROMITTI-BELTRAMO NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. John Romitti of 251 Evolution avenue announce the approaching marriage of their daughter Italia to Mr. Dominick Beltramo, son of the Frank Beltramo's of Bevier, Mo. The wedding will take place at the St. James church on Saturday morning, Sept. 30, at 11:30, Father Ward officiating.

MARGARET LLEWELLYN TO MARRY

The marriage of Miss Margaret Llewellyn to Mr. John Danus of Chicago is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Llewellyn of 235 Evolution avenue. Father Ward will hear the vows at the St. James church on Saturday, Sept. 30.

Miss Llewellyn was feted at a miscellaneous shower last week at the home of Mrs. Harold Kronke of Ft. Sheridan, at which approximately twenty-four of her friends attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Muzzarelli were pleasantly surprised last Sunday evening by a visit from their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ottavio Muzzarelli of Detroit, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Muzzarelli are here to attend the American Legion convention in Chicago and are registered at the Stevens hotel. In between the many activities planned for them they will visit with the Silvio Muzzarellis.

Mrs. Stella Sheridan announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Bernice Mahen, to Mr. Roy Castelari, which took place last Tuesday in Waukegan. The young couple will make their home in Deerfield.

Little Ida Casoria is home from the Highland Park hospital where she spent many weeks under observation. Although she must remain in bed at home, she is doing a very fine job of recuperating.

Entering Northwestern university this week for his last year is Mr. Peter Trucano of 317 Grove avenue.

Miss Gloriana Carani was among the guests who attended the birthday party of Miss Betty Jean Wise given at the Green Duck in Wheeling last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Werkman of Sparta, Wis., visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Kline, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Llewellyn of Prairie avenue had as their guests last week Mr. and Mrs. W. Weidlich, who are returning to their home in New York after having spent the summer in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Louella Meyers of Palatine is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nick Fiorre of 135 High street this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe LaRusso attended the wedding of their friend, Mr. Joe Caringello of Chicago on Sunday, Sept. 24.

Principal and Mrs. Wayne A. Thomas have purchased the Svendsen home on Burtis avenue and plan to move in the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Mary Vignocchi returned home from the Alice Home hospital in Lake Forest last Wednesday, after having undergone an appendectomy.

Friends of Mrs. J. Reilly will be glad to hear that she is making a rapid recovery from her surgical operation at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. Fred Ehrens returned home last week after having spent the past six weeks at the Alice Home hospital in Lake Forest, having been confined there with a ruptured appendix.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fini celebrated their 34th wedding anniversary at a dinner on Sunday, Sept. 24, for the immediate family.

Little Angelo Melchuri, 20 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. August Melchuri, is recuperating nicely from his accident last week. The child's foot was burned with hot water, but the burns were not very severe so that the doctor predicts he will be walking in about two or three weeks.

Mrs. Emma England was pleasantly surprised at her home last Thursday evening by several friends who came in to help her celebrate her birthday.

Rummage Sale Is Sponsored by D.B.E.

A rummage sale under the auspices of the local chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire will be held on Thursday, Oct. 5, at 4 N. 2nd St. Proceeds to benefit the British Old Peoples Home at Brookfield, Ill. Donations of rummage from interested friends will be greatly appreciated if sent to the above address on Wednesday, Oct. 4, or will be called for by telephoning 1398.

Modenese Juniors to Hold Dance Oct. 14

The Modenese Juniors, composed of the sons of the Modenese Society's members, held its regular meeting Monday evening. Louis Crovetti presided.

Plans were made to hold a dance Saturday evening, October 14, at the Labor Temple. Sinesio Zagnoli is chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements.

Small Group Hear Mrs. Burnham Tell of World Travels

Mrs. Grace Coale of 530 Linden avenue was hostess to several friends last Thursday evening. Mrs. Anita Willetts Burnham of Winnetka told the story of her travels as she has recorded it in her book entitled "Round the World on a Penny."

Everyone enjoyed the delightful recounting of those world experiences which make neighbors of all of us.

Mrs. Burnham will be the guest speaker of the Ravinia Woman's Club on the second Wednesday in April.

Recreation Room Is Available at Y.W.C.A.

The Y.W.C.A. has recently completed the equipping and redecorating of a splendid recreation room, and it is available for social functions of every kind. The Y is in our midst to provide a gathering place for groups of young and old. Young married couples are welcome, young women employed, mothers, and young people in school may have the use of either the large and beautiful assembly room, which can accommodate large dancing or bridge parties, provides a stage and an opportunity to serve refreshments, or the new recreation room for other types of parties. Both of these may be secured at a very nominal cost, and may be reserved by calling 675.

Marion Keeney Is Back From Study on West Coast

Miss Marion Keeney has returned to her home in Winnetka after a summer spent in Los Angeles and in the West. The first six weeks she devoted to intensive study of the dance. The remainder of her stay was spent at Coronado Beach with Lieut. and Mrs. Dan Wagner, formerly of Evanston; with Dr. and Mrs. Madison J. Keeney at their home in Los Angeles and at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club, and in visits to Yosemite National Park, the San Francisco fair and Valley Ranch, Wyoming.

Miss Keeney will resume her ballet and contemporary dance classes at the Highland Park Woman's Club on Friday afternoon, Oct. 6. The ballroom classes and assemblies will be given the latest and smartest steps from Hollywood and New York, including the "Rock and Roll," Irene Castle's charming new creation, and various of the newly revived early American dances.

Membership quotas in the Seventh and Eighth Grade assemblies are complete and registration is closed. Registration in the other classes is nearing completion.
