FLORENCE DINGLE TO WED OCTOBER 28

Mrs. Florence Thomas Dingle of 515 Sheridan road and Mr. John H. Dingle of Chicago announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence Thomas Dingle, to Laurence T. Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Herman of Woodstock.

Miss Dingle attended the Roycemore school, Evanston, Bradford Academy, Smith college and Northwestern university from which she has just been graduated. Mr. Herman is a graduate of Dartmouth in the class of '34 and is employed in Chicago.

Miss Dingle's forebears were closely linked with Chicago's social and economic rise and development. Her grandfather, Ambrose J. Thomas, co-founder of Lord and Thomas, was a pioneer in the field of advertising and his name appears in the annals of many of that profession's endeavors.

Miss Dingle has chosen to be married in the chapel of the Trinity Episcopal church of Highland Park at 4:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, October 28. The ceremony will be followed by a wedding reception at the home of the bride's mother in Highland Park.

The young couple will make their home in Highland Park.

HANSON-LEFFERT TO WED OCT. 7

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hanson announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Betty, to Frederick Leffert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Leffert. The wedding will take place Saturday evening, October 7, at 7:30 o'clock, at the United Evangelical church with Rev. F. P. Robinson reading the nuptials.

The young couple will have in their wedding party Miss Elin Johnson as maid of honor and the Misses Vera Johnson and Betty Leffert as bridesmaids. Mr. Cecil Nestruck will serve as best man and Louis Geminer and Louis Wagner will be the ushers.

Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ernest Knutson, 636 Skokie avenue.

SIMPLE WEDDING TUESDAY

At a small wedding with just the immediate families present, Miss

Muriel Bartlett, daughter of Mrs. W. W. Bartlett and the late Mr. Bartlett became the bride of Hans Christensen of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Christensen of Janesville, Wis. The ceremony was read in Dr. Douglas H. Cornell's study at the Glencoe Union church in Glencoe at 4 o'clock Tuesday.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony at the bride's parent's home, 369 Bloom street. She was lovely in a blue afternoon dress with a shoulder corsage of orchids and gardenias and her sister, Marcella, who was her only attendant was gowned in a dark blue afternoon frock and wore a corsage of gardenias. The groom was attended by his brother Norman Christensen.

After a weeks honeymoon in the Shenandoah National Forest, Va., Mr. Christensen and his bride will make their home at 431 Custor avenue, Evanston.

THRALL-REGLAND NUPTIALS SEPT. 30

The wedding of Miss June Thrall to Theodore Regland of Evanston is to take place Saturday. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard will perform the ceremony at 4:30 o'clock in the chapel of Christ church in Winnetka, and a reception will follow in the guild room of the Parish house. The bride, the daughter of Mrs. June Thrall of Greencastle, Ind., has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Ellis P. Schmidt of Beech lane, Highland Park.

The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, William Thrall, of Milwaukee, and will be attended by Mrs. Schmidt as matron of honor.

Mrs. Schmidt gave a shower and tea at her home for Miss Thrall yesterday (Wednesday) and the day of the wedding Mrs. James Kellogg of Winnetka will have a luncheon for the families and members of the bridal party.

PETER-GARDNER ANNOUNCEMENT

At a luncheon at home in Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Peter announced the engagement of their daughter, Christine, to John Hoyt Gardner, son of Mrs. Frank G. Gardner and the late Mr. Gardner of Central avenue.

About two dozen of Miss Peter's and Mr. Gardner's closest friends ness. Miss Peter is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Peter of Lake Forest. Mr. Gardner has been working in Detroit for the last year and lives in Grosse Pointe, where he met his fiancée.

No plans have been made for the wedding. Miss Peter attended Mount Holyoke college. Mr. Gardner is a fourth generation Chicagoan, being a great-grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Bogue and of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hoyt. He attended Andover and Lake Forest academies and was graduated from Cornell university in 1934.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Roberts have just returned from a three weeks motor trip all through the East and as far South as the Great Smokies, which no one should miss seeing. They also visited Ottawa, Montreal and Quebec, Canada, and report the weather was ideal every place, for the heat had preceded them. The many friends of the Oswald Schuettes, former residents of Highland park now of Washington, D. C., and New York City, will be glad to hear that they are well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roetter and family will be dinner guests at the Harry Wing's home in Deerfield on Saturday evening.
