FORETT-FELL WEDDING SUNDAY
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Forett of Waukegan announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Pearl to Fred Fell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fell of McGovern street. The wedding ceremony will take place Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in a suite at the Drake hotel with just the immediate families present. Rabbi Solomon Jacobson will officiate. The bride's sister, Mrs. Leo Gilmore, will attend her as matron of honor and the groom's brother, Jake Fell, will serve as best man.

There will be a reception at the suite for the family and immediate friends after which the young couple will tour the East for two weeks on their wedding trip. They will make their home in Waukegan temporarily.

WENBAN-VAUGHN NUPTIALS SEPT. 24

The many Highland Park friends of Mrs. Ruth Powell Wenban of Lake Forest will be glad to hear of her marriage to Frank Luther Vaughn of Fort Ann, N.Y., which took place on Sunday, September 24 in the chancel of the Presbyterian church at Glens Falls, N.Y.

The bride, who wore an afternoon dress of blue crepe with matching turban and a shoulder corsage of deep pink rosebuds, was attended by Miss Suzanne Hazlehurst of Michigan City, Ind. The groom's best man was his brother, Ernest J. Vaughn of Schenectady, N. Y.

Following the ceremony, a turkey dinner was served at the farm home of the groom, which lies in the foothills of the Adirondacks near Lake George. The house, which has been occupied by four generations of the Vaughn family, was built in 1812.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn plan a visit to Lake Forest, where the bride has lived for the past twenty-five years. After December 1, they will be at home at Fort Ann, New York. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. May Corbin Powell, and has two daughters, Betty and Shirley Wenban.

GATEWOOD-SENTERS MARRIAGE SATURDAY

The marriage of Miss Grace Marion Gatewood to Walter Jennings Sentries of Maryland will take place on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lee Connel Gatewood of Laurel ave. The wedding will mark the celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents and of the 53rd wedding anniversary of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Annie L. Gatewood, who will come from her home in McConnellsville, O., for the wedding. Mr. Sentries is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sentries of Lake Odessa, Michigan. Dr. Louis W. Sherwin of the Highland Park Presbyterian church will officiate.

The young couple will have in their wedding party, Mrs. Loren Koch of Oak Park as matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Jean Schiffer of River Forest and Mary Morris of Highland Park. Mr. Millroy Ross of Fairbury, Ill., will serve as best man. A reception is being given at the Gatewood home following the ceremony after which Mr. Sentries and his bride will leave for a two weeks honeymoon in the East. The young couple will make their home in Frostburg, Md., where Mr. Sentries is an engineer.

On Saturday Miss Gatewood was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by the Misses Mildred Gail and Rae Seidenbecker at the latter's home on Sheridan road. Sunday evening Miss Madge Hawkins gave a supper party for Miss Gatewood and Mr. Sentries and on Friday Mrs. Gatewood of Elm Place will give the wedding dinner preceding the rehearsal.

BOOTH-GUALANDRI WEDDING

Miss Helen Booth of Highland Park, daughter of Mrs. Emma Ruth of Kirksville, Mo., and Joseph Gualandri of Highwood, son of Mrs. Adella Gualandri of Ladd, Ill., were married Saturday, Sept. 30, at 11:30 a.m. in Downing, Mo., by Rev. Charles R. Daniels, minister of the Christian church. The bridesmaids were Jessie Ruth, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Pernie Ruth, sister-in-law of the bride. Serving the groom were J. R. Ruth of Downing, Mo., and Kalman Thoma of Chicago. Another sister of the bride, Ferris Ruth, was left support of the minister bearing the ring and having the pleasure of giving her sister, Helen Booth, in the hands of the minister in the ring ceremony.

Mrs. Helen Booth Gualandri wore a romance blue dress, hat and veil with black accessories, and the groom, Mr. Joseph Gualandri, was dressed in an Oxford grey striped suit. These young people were escorted to the home of J. R. Ruth's, brother of the bride, after the wedding, where a wedding dinner was waiting with immediate relatives attending. Mr. and Mrs. Gualandri are well known here and are living at 625 Laurel avenue.
