

Democratic Young People's President to Speak in Waukegan

Mr. Homer Mat Adams, President of Democratic Young Peoples Clubs of America, will speak at the Citizenship Day party sponsored by the Lake County Democratic committee October 15 at 3 o'clock in the American Legion hall at Waukegan, David E. Rubinson, chairman of the affair, announced. A dance will follow the program, and coffee and doughnuts will be served. The affair will be open to the general public with invitation extended in particular to all new 1939 voters of Lake county.

October 15 was recently set aside by proclamation of Gov. Henry Horner as a day for observance of the attainment of voting age by Illinois youth.

Members of the committee in charge of the party are: Rubinson, chairman; Francis Lerche, Philip W. Yager, John Dado of Highland Park, and Anton Macrowski. Jack Ewing, chairman of the Lake County Young People's Club, is cooperating with the committee.

Ravinia Studio Theatre to Enact Children's Plays

The Talking Cat, a play especially written by Rowena Bennett for the Ravinia Studio theater at 1532 Judson avenue will be given Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, October 22. The play is under the direction of Helen Beach, and the cast includes David Binder, Debe Binder, Betsy Law, Gale George, Sammie Golden.

This is the first of a series of childrens plays, acted by the children in the Studio theater groups. No admission charge. Complimentary tickets at Studio theatre any afternoon between three and six.

Young Republicans to Meet Friday P. M.

The Young Republican club will meet tomorrow evening, (Friday) at 8 o'clock in the club room on N. Sheridan road.

All members are urged to attend and asked to bring a new member with them.

Sam LaSaine, Junior Central Committeeman of the Tenth District will be the speaker. Refreshments will be served.

Kiwanis Club Hears Adventure Voyage of Franz Plunder

Mr. Franz Plunder was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Highland Park-Ravinia, on Monday evening at Hills Tea Room. Mr. Plunder gave a very interesting account of a voyage which took sixty-one days from Hamburg, Germany, to New York City. The voyage was made by himself and three companions in an open boat, which they themselves had built. Slides taken during the trip made the incidents most vivid and held the audience spellbound during the entire talk. The four men came to America after the close of the last world war to become citizens of the United States.

Slight Damage at Exmoor Club Fire

Highland Park firemen responded to a call to extinguish a blaze at Exmoor Country club last Thursday afternoon.

A pan of grease in the oven of a kitchen range caught fire. The fire was extinguished with chemicals with but a small loss.

Aside from several grass fires, there has been little activity for the local department.

Reservations must be made not later than Monday, Oct. 16, with Catherine Levin, H. P. 2448. Members' families and friends may attend for a small fee.

Community Service Sponsors Archery Tournament Oct. 29

In response to many requests, Community Service is sponsoring a Fall Citywide Archery Contest. Sunday afternoon, October 29, is the date and 2 p.m. is starting time.

As in the contests held last May there will be four classes of competition:

Columbian Round for Girls—each girl to shoot a total of 72 arrows at from 20 to 40 yards from the target. This event is specially for grammar age girls.

American Round for Boys—here

each boy shoots a total of 90 arrows at from 30 to 50 yards from the target.

Columbian Round for Women—contestants shoot a total of 72 arrows at from 30 to 50 yards from target.

American Round for Men—men shoot 90 arrows at target which is from 40 to 60 yards away.

All individuals interested in the sport are invited to participate in this event. Archery clubs are invited to have their membership enter this contest.

Entry blanks may be had from the following: Mr. W. E. Cunningham, of Elm Place school; Mr. Sidney Morris; Mr. George Scheuchensprung, 549 Central avenue, phone 2692.

Adult Education Class Enrollment Largest Recorded

Monday evening the largest number of students ever to attend evening classes in Highland Park started work at the high school. All classes offered have enough students to insure the continuance of the work throughout the term with the possible exception of Cooking and Mechanical Drawing. It is hoped that enough will be enrolled next Monday evening to fill out the required number necessary.

Woodwork, Sewing and Monday night Badminton classes are filled. However, enrollment in any of the other classes can be made on next Monday or Wednesday evenings. Persons desiring to play Badminton can be taken in our Wednesday evening classes.

Prof. Earl DeLong of the Economics department of Northwestern university, will be the speaker for the Current Affairs course on next Wednesday evening.

A special demonstration in Bookbinding will be given next Monday evening in Mr. Field's class in the Industrial Arts building. Anyone interested in this activity is urged to attend. New equipment for this class will be on hand at that time.

Total enrollment figures in all classes on the program will be available next week.

A new class in conversational

French will start next week. This class will be held in Shields Hall.

Any group of persons in the community desiring a class in something other than the subjects offered this term are asked to get in touch with A. N. Thurston at the high school. Every effort will be expended to meet the demands for any desired course.

Plans are under way now for starting a class in Practical Salesmanship for persons now employed in retail selling. Competent instructors with actual selling experience will conduct this course if enough interest is shown.

Remember it is not too late to enroll. Don't forget the best series of lectures on Current Affairs ever held in this community are now being held at the high school every Wednesday evening.
