E. Sawyer Smith has just been made chairman of the Hallowe'en committee in charge of the arrangements for this year's Hallowe'en celebration in Glencoe. Mr. Smith said that his committee is planning a lively entertainment that will attract children of all ages and their parents. "Similar programs have been the custom in Glencoe for a number of years and have worked out to the complete satisfaction of the children and to the relief of the parents, property owners and police department. He added and explained that it was through the cooperation of the school board, park board and the playground committee, that this community project is made possible. The Glencoe Community council is sponsoring the celebration.
