HIGHWOOD PARISH TO HAVE PARTY

The Tabernacle society of the St. James parish in Highwood will hold a public card and bunco party starting at 8 p.m. Friday in the Labor Temple.

Prizes will be offered to winners, according to Mrs. John McCaffrey, chairman of the arrangements committee for the event.

Mr. C. P. Thomas of Wauconda will make his home for the winter months with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Luebke.

Mrs. J. Juliani, who underwent an appendectomy at the Waukegan hospital recently, returned to her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlandini of LaSalle were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Somenzi on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Liske celebrated their thirty-second wedding anniversary on Sunday with a dinner for their immediate family. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. Tutwiler and son Paul of Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. G. Liske and daughter Joan of Waukegan, Mr. and Mrs. R. Unbehaun and Mrs. M. Johnson of Highwood.

The Bellarmine club of the St. James church held their first fall meeting on Tuesday evening at the parish hall. They were entertained by movies after which refreshments were served.

The American Legion will hold their first fall dinner and dance on November 11. Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any member.

Mrs. Sarah Laegeler was hostess at dinner on Thursday evening to her family and a few close friends in honor of her seventy-first birthday. Among out-of-town guests present were the Misses Clara and Lou Nye, Miss Ada Dahl and Mrs. D. Park of Chicago.

Brother George Garrity of the order of St. Camelia in Milwaukee, spent a very pleasant vacation here visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Liske and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. Unbehaun.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kidwell entertained their 500 card club on Tuesday evening at their home on Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gentilini motored to Bloomington, Ill., over the past week-end.

Mrs. Mary East and Miss Mary Sweeney of Highland Park are attending the postmasters' convention in Washington, D. C.

Mr. August Melchorri has gone to Arkansas where he will spend a few days.

Quite a number of Highwood residents attended the Gardeners' Association banquet held at the Victor Vienna cafe on Waukegan road. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Crovetti, Mr. and Mrs. August Melchorri, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pasquesi.

Nathan Corwith Sr. Passes on Sunday

Nathan Corwith, a retired business man, died Sunday in his home at 199 Vine Ave. He was 79 years old and had resided in Highland Park for nearly forty-five years.

Mr. Corwith was born in Galena, Ill., and was a graduate of Phillips academy, Andover, Mass. He was a partner with his father in the pig lead business under the firm name of N. Corwith & Co. Later he became associated with the American Smelting and Refining company. He was a trustee of a number of estates in Chicago.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Marcia Hempstead Corwith, a son, Nathan, Jr., a grandson Nathan III, and two sisters Mrs. M. D. Wells and Miss Sue W. Corwith.

Services were held Monday afternoon in the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church.

Anthony Czarnecki to Address Braeside P.T.A. on 'Present War'

The Parent-Teachers Civic association of Braeside will hold its first meeting of the season on Monday evening, October 23rd at 8 o'clock. Mr. Anthony Czarnecki of the Chicago Daily News will speak on "We Americans and the Present War."

Mr. Czarnecki was born in Poland and was brought to Chicago when a child. He has been active in newspaper work since 1898 and was a war correspondent in Europe from 1914-1919.

Following Mr. Czarnecki's talk there will be refreshments and a social hour.

Mr. Edgar Carter is the president of the association for the coming year. Other officers are Mrs. Allen B. Discus, vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. C. Longford Felske, secretary; and Mr. Robert Olmsted, treasurer. Mr. Jens Erikson, Mr. Malcolm Kerr and Mr. Roy Olson are directors. Mrs. L. L. Howe is the social chairman; Mr. J. David Dickinson heads the Sports committee and other chairmen are: Mr. Richard McGowan, Badminton; Mr. Edward Knox, field day and

Mr. Kenneth Ward, publicity. All families living in the Braeside school district are urged to attend this meeting and to become members of the association. This organization has a general community purpose and its membership and interests are by no means limited to those having children in the school. Interesting and varied programs are planned for the coming year.
