WILSON'S Weekly MEMO

by GEORGE RECTOR

When a housewife has a whole Wilson's Bone-Tender Made Ham on hand, it is a good time for her to take a culinary inventory. These are some of the potential assets she has in that delectable investment: One or more good tender cut steaks for broiling; the butt half to be baked and served as a hot roast; the shank half to be ditted, or just sliced and served without cooking; innumerable cold platters, sandwiches, snacks and salads, as well as several hot entrees. Finally, the bone can be used for a big "mess" of delicious black bean soup!

Some of our tastiest dishes, even those served in the best restaurants, are made from food that has previously been cooked. For example, here is a satisfying and quick lunch or supper dish, which utilizes a small fraction of a Wilson's Tender Made Ham:

- HAM PAN-DOWDY
- 2 cups flour (sifted before measuring)
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons Wilson's Certified Pure Lard
- 3/4 cup cold milk
- Sift together flour, salt and baking powder. Add lard and mix to a fine crumb as for pie dough. Add milk and mix with a fork until the ingredients hold together. Turn out lightly on a floured board and knead a few times. Roll out to 1/4" thickness and place in a greased tin, about 8 inches square.
- Spread with a mixture made from: 1 cup Tender Made Ham, ground 1 cup whole kernel corn
- Savory Mayonnaise to moisten
- Salt, pepper and a dash of sugar
- Spread on top of the biscuit dough and place another layer of dough on top. Bake in a hot oven (425° F.) for 20 minutes.
- Cut in squares and serve as an entree with a brown mushroom sauce poured over it.

THE WIFE OF THE PARTY
The hostess is not required to be the life of the party but certainly she ought to add to it numerically. Careful planning will obviate any long, embarrassing absence while she is preparing the "entree."

The dry ingredients for the waffles may be mixed in advance and the cheese grated so that nothing remains but to finish mixing the waffles.

- Certified Cheese Waffles
- 2 cups all-purpose flour (sifted before measuring)
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 3 Clear Brook eggs
- 1 1/4 cups milk
- 7 tablespoons melted Certified Pure Lard
- Add 1/4 lb. Certified American Cheese, grated
- Beat egg yolks till light. Add the milk, melted lard and the grated cheese. Combine with the dry ingredients, sifted together and beat with rotary beater until smooth. Fold in the egg whites, beaten stiff. Bake as usual. Serve with Pineapple Sauce, Currant Jelly or other tart topping. Makes 9 waffles.

Pineapple Sauce
Heat 1 cup of crushed pineapple; add 1/4 tablespoon cornstarch mixed with a little cold water, and cook until thickened.
