Adult Education
Enrollment Over 600
Prof. Strevey Speaks
The enrollment in the evening classes at the Highland Park High school has been steadily increasing since the advance registration period. At the present time more than six hundred registrations have been recorded.

There will still be an opportunity to enroll in various classes on next Monday and Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m.
The classes on Monday evening which are filled are Woodwork, Badminton, Metal Work, Sewing, Public Speaking, Leatherwork, Bookbinding, and Beginning Shorthand. All other classes are open for a few more students.
Prof. Strevey of Northwestern will give his second of a series of five lectures in the English Club room at the high school on Wednesday evening. His first lecture was very well attended and enthusiastically received by more than one hundred persons in this community. Prof. Strevey is definitely one of the best speakers on Current Affairs in this area and the people of Highland Park are very fortunate in having the privilege of hearing his interesting discussions. Come out next Wednesday and support this extremely worthwhile project. The time is 8 p.m. Single admission tickets, sell for 35c and the season tickets sell for $1.50.
