DINGLE-HERMAN WEDDING SATURDAY

Miss Florence Thomas Dingle, daughter of Mrs. Florence Thomas Dingle of S. Sheridan road, and Mr. John H. Dingle of Chicago, and Mr. Laurence T. Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Herman of Woodstock, will be united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The wedding takes place in the chapel of the Trinity Episcopal church with Rev. Christoph Keller reading the ceremony.

Miss Dingle and Mr. Herman will only have two attendants, Miss Harriet Schwartz as maid of honor and Mr. Grant Herman as best man.

After a short wedding trip Mr. Herman and his bride will make their home at 222 Dale avenue.

Parties for the young couple started on October 5th when Miss Barbara Emerson entertained at a lingerie shower for Miss Dingle. On October 12th Miss Katherine Johnston was hostess at a bathroom shower and on Friday, October 20th, Mrs. Ray Herman and Mrs. Earl Herman gave a pantry shower. On that same evening Mr. and Mrs. John Sample were hosts at a small dinner party.

Miss Harriet Schwartz gave a dinner dance at the Drake hotel for Miss Dingle and Mr. Herman and their many friends Saturday evening. The next evening, Sunday, Miss Ann Willette was hostess at a kitchen shower and cocktail party at her home in Chicago. On Wednesday, Grant Herman entertained at a dinner party for the young couple and on Friday Mrs. Dingle will be hostess at the bridal dinner at Exmoor Country Club. A reception will be given at the home of the bride's mother following the wedding ceremony.

DONNERSBERGER WEDDING

A lovely wedding ceremony which was solemnized at nuptial mass in St. Mary's church, Lake Forest, last Saturday, was that of Miss Georgia Donnersberger and Charles J. Cretors. The bride wore a hoop skirted gown of ivory satin trimmed with Honiton lace, and a short veil held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a Victorian nosegay of gardenias and lilies of the valley, and for something borrowed she wore a string of pearls loaned by her mother.

In her bridal party, Miss Donnersberger had six attendants—Miss

Genevieve Swift, as maid of honor, the Misses Louise Cretors, Jane Fitzgerald and the bride's sisters, Antoinette, Genevieve and Florence as bridesmaids. They wore hoop skirted gowns of gold faille with little poke bonnets of ostrich plumes in shades of gold and brown. They carried muffs of autumn colored chrysanthemums.

The groom had as his attendants Herbert Davenport as best man, and acting as ushers were Frederick Fix, Edmund Eagon, Gerald White, James Hollahan and Frederick Wendnagel, all of Chicago.

A breakfast party and reception was given at Exmoor Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. George Donnersberger, parents of the bride, right after the ceremony.

Mr. Cretors, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. DeWitt Cretors of Chicago, and his bride will be home in Highland Park after a honeymoon in Jamaica.

MANN-JACKSON WEDDING FRIDAY

Miss Dorothy Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Mann, became the bride of Mr. S. Lee Jackson, son of Mr. S. Eugene Jackson of Providence, R. I., and Mrs. J. Tyrrell Cheney of New York, last Friday at 12 o'clock noon. The simple ceremony took place in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends at the Presbyterian church with Rev. Louis W. Sherwin reading the service.

The bride was gowned in an olive green wool afternoon dress and wore a corsage of green orchids. Miss Isabelle Mann, sister of the bride, acting as maid of honor, wore a dark purple dress and hat and had a shoulder corsage of purple orchids. Mrs. Barnard Pollock of New York City, sister of the groom, wearing a grey velveteen frock and purple orchid corsage, served as bridesmaid. Mr. S. Eugene Jackson attended his son as best man and Mr. Ralph Longstaff of Evanston acted as usher.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Mann home on N. Sheridan road following the ceremony.

Mr. Jackson and his bride took a short honeymoon the early part of the week and will continue their honeymoon during the Christmas holidays when they will go to Sun Valley.

They are at home at 1714 Rice street, Ravinia.

EUNICE WILLIAMS' MARRIAGE

Miss Eunice Williams, of Highland Park, daughter of Mrs. Alice Williams, of Osage City, Kansas, was married to Alfred Swader, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Swader, of Marquette, Mich., at 4:30 in the afternoon, October 14, in the Messiah Lutheran church, Marquette, Mich., Dr. O. H. Boström officiating. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was given in marriage by Lt. Colonel Henry E. Keeley, of Fort Sheridan. Miss Ragnhild Christensen of Highland Park was the bridesmaid and Donald Mellin, the best man. Frank Swader and Peter Ambrosiana were the ushers. The bride's gown of white satin was trimmed with seed pearls. The veil of illusion, held in place by a coronet of gardenias, fell in graceful folds to the edge of her long train. She carried a shower bouquet of white bebe chrysanthemums.

Her attendant wore a floor-length dress of wine-colored velvet and bronze bebe chrysanthemums. A wedding supper was served in the home of the groom's parents, following the ceremony and was attended by the bridal party and relatives. The couple left Saturday night for a short wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Swader will be at home after November 1 in Manitowish cove, Lakewood, Mich. Previous to her marriage, Mrs. Swader had been dietitian at the Station hospital, Fort Sheridan.

HIBBARD-GALLUP WEDDING SATURDAY

The marriage of Miss Beverly Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Hibbard of Beverly Hills, and Benton B. Gallup, son of Mrs. Edw. M. Gallup of Central avenue, was solemnized at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Union church in Beverly Hills.

The bride was dressed informally in a three piece navy blue tweed suit with blue accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias. Her sister, Marjory Hibbard, acting as her assistant, was gowned in a Bergundy velvet frock and also wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias. Mr. John Cole, formerly of Highland Park, served as best man.

After a short wedding trip to Madison, Wis., Mr. Gallup and his bride will make their home on South Shore drive, Chicago.
