

High School Teams Win 5th Double Victory Saturday

It's becoming a habit for the Highland Park high school football teams to win two football games the same afternoon. For the fifth time this season they scored a double victory when they defeated both Waukegan teams last Saturday.

In the first quarter of the curtain-raiser Barnhardt put the Waukegan team in a tough spot when he quick kicked out of bounds on their 4-yard stripe. After Waukegan had kicked out of danger the local boys carried the ball back to the 20-yard line. From here, Rossi on a full spinner to the weak side of the line, after Waukegan had over-shifted went over for 20 yards and a touchdown.

The Highland Park boys did not look impressive, although they won, and will need to do better if they expect to beat the undefeated ponies from New Trier this Saturday.

The starting lineup was: Jones and Maechtle, ends; D. Baracani and Chambers, tackles; Dever and Evers, guards; Detmer, center; Werhane, quarterback; Crocetti and Barnhardt, halfbacks, and Rossi, fullback.

In the first quarter the varsity gave indication of going places when they made several touchdowns. Near the end of this period Heath took the ball on his own 40-yard line and after faking a kick raced 60 yards to what the spectators thought was a touchdown. However, the ball was taken back to the Waukegan 40-yard line where officials claimed the runner had stepped out of bounds. Near the end of the second quarter the Little Giants were headed for a touchdown but when they reached the 12-yard stripe the half ended.

In the third quarter Heath again faked a kick and raced 75 yards for a touchdown. This time it counted and when Nelson kicked the extra point the score was 7 to 0 in favor of Highland Park. Because of a penalty Highland Park had to kick off from the 25-yard line. Another penalty on the same team a minute later made it Waukegan's ball on Highland Park's 35 yard stripe. From here Coach Wilson's boys took it to the 7 yard line as the quarter ended.

With about four minutes left to play Flint threw a 45-yard pass to Summers who caught the ball over his shoulder on the dead run and continued 35 yards for another six points. Again Nelson place kicked the extra point and the score stood 14 to 7 in favor of Highland Park. In the last few minutes Waukegan took to the air in a desperate attempt to tie the score.

Coach Floyd's boys looked the best that they have all season. Flint as usual did a good job of quarterbacking. Menduno did an excellent job of blocking and in addition made some nice gains with the ball. The linemen, Earhart, Lyon, B. Johnson, Miller, Nelson, and Grinde, all looked good against a team that had outstanding tackles. Boilini, who started at right end, and McDonald, who substituted at left end, both did nice defensive work. The backfield substitutes, Bracken, R. Johnson and Picchetti, were as effective as the starting boys. And Joseph Joseph, who was injured when he fell off a tricycle early in the season, looked as if he could drive through a brick wall. When asked who was the star of Saturday's game, Coach Floyd replied "they all starred."

This Saturday the local lads travel to Winnetka to play the big boys from New Trier. The starting lineup on Saturday was: Summers and Boilini, ends; Lyon and Nelson, tackles; Earhart and Miller, guards; B. Johnson, center; Flint, quarterback; Heath and Menduno, halves, and Joseph, fullback.

"The White Steed" Opens Engagement at Erlanger Theatre

"The White Steed," which received the New York Drama Critics award as the best comedy of the past season, is being presented at the Erlanger Theatre, Chicago, for a limited engagement beginning Monday, Oct. 23, with the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. The story is laid in the little seaside town of Larne, where the lovable and wise old Canon has been taken ill and has to turn over his duties to a younger man who turns out to be an honest but narrow and bigoted priest who attempts to puritanize the town. Against him is set the Canon, Matt Lavelle, a humorous and infinitely wise and human old priest who, though paralyzed in the legs, is far from being so in the head. The young priest sets the community in an uproar by his vigilant methods and gets the enmity of the police and Nora, who has just returned home after her graduation in England and has her own ideas about how a modern young girl should conduct herself. Of quick tongue and fiery temper she soon clashes with the Father because she will not do his bidding, much to the delight of the old Canon. Nora, romantic and handsome, patterns her life somewhat after the legend of "The White Steed," from which the play gets its title, finds in the little country schoolmaster, courageous only when under the influence of drink, her Ossian, and eventually makes a man of him.

Paul Vincent Carroll, the author, has filled his lay with hearty laughter and fiery drama. His characters are portrayed in such a masterly fashion that they are unforgettable. He does not strain for the impossible either in the play's lighter or dramatic moments but it runs surely and excitingly along until its final curtain. Eddie Dowling has given "The White Steed" a velvety cast. Whitford Kane is admirably supported by Gertrude Flynn, Ralph Cullinan, Grace Mills, Tom Bate, Grania O'Malley, Thomas P. Dillon, Farrell Pelly, William Cragin, Elizabeth Malone, Eleanor Laurence, William H. Malone and Patrick Henry.

The Spy Industry—big business. Swarming armies of destroying agents that cost less than troops in the field and do more damage, have superseded the old-fashioned romantic characters who dealt in secret codes and dramatics. This article will be found in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald-American.

"Dame Fashion" Is Ready to Greet Auto Show Crowds

Mammoth, gigantic, stupendous and all the other superlatives will be in order when the "Dame Fashion" feature spectacle greets the public at the 40th annual Chicago Automobile Show which will open a week from Saturday (Nov. 4th) and continue through Sunday, Nov. 12, at the International Amphitheater, Halsted and Forty-third streets.

This becomes known with release of the "staggering statistics" by M. J. Lanahan, chairman of the executive show committee.

Here is what "Dame Fashion" will look like. She will be 18 feet in height, and the hoops in her skirt will be the width of three automobiles. She will wear a satin dress containing enough material to make gowns for 50 women.

"Dame Fashion" will be dressed in the Louis XVI of France period manner, with full flowing, ruffled skirts and high dressed hair.

The special stage on which she will display the 1940 model automobiles will set a record for size. It will have two turntables electrically controlled. Construction of the stage requires two carloads of lumber.

As for the curtain, it will also set a record in size, measuring 150 feet wide and 73 feet high, and containing 1,600 yards of material.

John C. Becker, scenic artist who designed the stage and decorative effects, revealed that the decorative scheme throughout the Amphitheater will have cobalt blue and coral as the color motif.

With the complete cost selected and assembled, including 19 "nationally famous" Edward Beck, noted production director of "Dame Fashion" is rehearsing the stars of the show daily.

The musical melange will be presented each afternoon and evening during the show. Sharing the central arena also will be demonstrations of television in which the public may participate.

Exhibits which ushered in the New York automobile show are being brought to Chicago for installation in the Amphitheater. They include 1940 model cars, trucks, accessories and other units, along with fascinating special features originated by the manufacturers.

The accent on safety at the Chicago Automobile Show is to be provided by exhibits of Mayor Kelly's Keep Chicago Safe Committee, Chicago Park District, Board of Education, and the Illinois Automobile and Highway departments. The Keep Chicago Safe Committee next week will select prize winning posters and slogans entered by public, parochial and private high school students in a contest. In addition to displaying the posters and slogans in its own booth, the Keep Chicago Safe Committee is cooperating with the Chicago Park District, and the Board of Education in conducting color blindness, distance judgment and other tests for drivers of cars. Education of motorists in same, courteous driving will also be stressed.

Nor is safety being overlooked in the automotive exhibits. The man-

SAFETYGRAMS

Any person who drives a car or truck with poor brakes is violating one of the very first rules of safety. He may live to regret it. It reminds me of the story of the farmer and his son who were working in a field where a line crew from the power company was repairing damage done by a previous storm. Abner, the farmer's son, while fussing around the operations, got hold of a live wire. His father yelled to him, "Put that down, Abner. It don't belong to you." But Abner couldn't let go of the live wire.

Poor brakes put you in the same position. You want to stop and apply the brakes, but they fail to hold and the result may be a serious accident and possibly death. It's Smart to Drive Carefully!
