FLORENCE DINGLE WED SATURDAY

Before a small assemblage of friends and relatives Miss Florence Thomas Dingle, daughter of Mrs. Florence Thomas Dingle of S. Sheridan road and Mr. John H. Dingle of Chicago became the wife of Laurence T. Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Herman of Woodstock. The service was read at four thirty o'clock Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Christoph Keller in the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church.

The bride wore a very plain cut gown of bengaline, fashioned with a simple round neckline adorned with pearls, long sleeves and a long chapel train. Her mothers wedding veil which she wore twenty-six years ago formed the foundation of her veil which also had a long billowy train of tulle. A soft draped cap with a short face veil thrown back over the cap added to the attractiveness of the bride. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Harriett Schwartz of Chicago, the bride's only attendant wore a gown of gold Faille. Her hat was a breast of golden feathers with a long ostrich plume drapping from the feathers. She carried a bouquet of bronze and red chrysanthemums.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother where the living room had been transformed into a bower of autumn colored chrysanthemums. White chrysanthemums adorned the dining room, where a large wedding cake served as a centerpiece on the dining table.

After a short wedding trip Mr. Herman and his bride will make their home at 222 Dale avenue.

HOME WEDDING THURSDAY

Mrs. Nell Rectenwald of Bloom street announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Jeanette Caroline Rectenwald to William James Himmilwright of Barrington. The wedding, a very quiet affair, will take place at the bride's mothers home, Thursday, Nov. 9.

PAISLEY-SNOW NUPTIALS OCT. 26

When Frances Marguerite Paisley became the bride of James Calender Snow Jr., she was stunning in a formal white wool gown with a long Irish lace veil. Her crocheted cap was fashioned from an Irish lace tissue worn by her great grandmother when she was wed. She carried an ivory white Bible, that has been in the family for years, with two orchids hanging over it. The bride's maid of honor and her bridesmaids were gowned in green wool and carried muffs of yellow pom-poms and daisies. Miss Margaret Knight was her cousin's maid of honor and little Nancy Park of Kenilworth, who was sweet in a white velvet frock and bonnet, acted as flower girl. Serving as bridesmaids were, Miss Mary Ava Snow, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Jane Whitacre and Miss Helen Putt.

Mr. Snow, son of Mrs. James C. Snow of Chicago, had Tom Robinson of Milwaukee as his best man. Ushering were Howard Nash, Emerson Welles, Stanley Knight, J. D. Van Denaebelle and Gilbert Keith.

The wedding ceremony held at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the Church of the Holy Comforter in Kenilworth was followed by a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Paisley of Lakeside place. The Rev. Leland H. Danforth read the service.

After a ten day wedding trip in the South the young couple will make their home on the near North Side, Chicago.
