BORCHARDT-PARRISH NUPTIALS

Before a palm and fern decorated altar at the St. Johns Evangelical church, Miss Helene Borchardt became the bride of Donald Parrish. The wedding took place Saturday evening at 7:30 with Rev. F. G. ### Woman's Club to Hear "Trailer Log" by Miss Elyse Joy

On Tuesday, November 21, the Highland Park Woman's Club will have a short business meeting at 2 p.m. Following this session Mrs. David Sanders, chairman of the program committee, will introduce the guest artist of the afternoon, Miss Elyse Joy.

Miss Joy has achieved a reputation as an entertainer with nonsense and clever mimicry. Parental disapproval prevented the embarking on a career as an actress and she became instead one of Boston's best known newspaper women. Her fondness for making ridiculous bets and then proceeding to win them has led her into some unforgettable experiences, such as an interview in disguise with Mary Pickford and so on. She has traveled widely about the country in her trailer, and will present her "Trailer-Log", a program of amusing anecdotes and impersonations of many of the interesting people she has met in her wanderings. Miss Joy is replacing Miss Mehra Masani of India, who was scheduled to speak before the club at this time but due to European conditions has been unable to reach this country.

At the conclusion of Miss Joy's program, tea will be served in the lounge of the club. Mrs. J. F. Glidden, Mrs. Phillip L. Johnson, Mrs. John Oliver and Mrs. Paul R. Smith will pour.

At 12:45 preceding this regular club meeting, Mrs. Carl Pfanstiehl will review the interesting best-seller "Days of Our Years" by Pierre van Paassen. All club members are invited to attend.

"Swing Club" Opens Season Nov. 25 at H. P. Woman's Club

Invitations have been issued for the 1939-40 season of "Swing Club" sponsored during the past two years for the Sophomore, Junior and Senior high school students by the Highland Park Women's Club. The opening dance will be held on Saturday, November 25, at 9 p.m. Bud Bealls' orchestra, so popular at the present time, has been engaged for that evening. This year there will be a series of six dances instead of ten as in previous years.

"Swing Club" was started two years ago by the Highland Park Woman's Club so that there might be dancing in Highland Park for young people in attractive surroundings with good orchestras furnishing the swing music to which they all wanted to dance. This club has been given such enthusiastic support that it is fast becoming an institution in town.

An equal number of boys and girls will be accepted for membership until the membership limit has been reached. Mrs. Clarence E. Jones is chairman of the committee sponsoring "Swing Club" again this year.

Elizabeth O. Jones to Exhibit Works at Annual Exhibit

Elizabeth Orton Jones of 272 Vine avenue, is among the North Shore artists whose work is to be seen in the present third annual exhibit of miniature etchings of the Chicago Society of Etchers. She is well known as an illustrator of children's books. Her two etchings in the exhibit are attracting considerable attention. "The Artist" is a study of a child perched on a high stool, working diligently with pencils, colors and paper. About the chair are strewn paints, brushes, et cetera. A portrayal of a fairy sitting among flowers, is the subject of "Fannie the Fairy." The Fairy's hair is done up in a knot on the top of her head, a wink in her eye and a self-satisfied smile on her lips.

The third annual exhibit of miniature etchings will continue through the month of November in the Club Woman's Bureau Galleries on the 9th floor of Mandel Brothers. There are 116 etchings in the exhibit. No print is larger than 3/5 inches. The exhibit includes etchings by 40 artists, 25 of them living in 18 states in the Union, three live in Hungary, England and Switzerland. Only 13 are local artists.

Woman's Association to Hear Review of Religious Book

At 2 p.m. on Nov. 20, the Women's association of the Highland Park Presbyterian church will have the privilege of hearing Mrs. C. L. Jackson of Chicago review Southern and Bates' book "The Bible as Living Literature."

To quote Mrs. Reinking, program chairman, Mrs. Jackson "is a professional book reviewer, a deep thinker and a conscientious Christian," and her ability is "supplemented by much research and personal knowledge."

At 10 o'clock the church rooms are open for hospital dressings and charitable sewing.

Luncheon is served promptly at 12:30.

Rabbi C. E. Shulman to Base Sermon on 'The Nazarene' Sunday

On Sunday morning, November 19, Rabbi Charles E. Shulman will base his sermon before the North Shore Congregation Israel on the great novel of Sholem Asch—"The Nazarene."

The sermon will, however, not be devoted exclusively to the novel but will deal with the implications of Asch's studies in the light of the confused modern times when neither Jew nor Gentile, German nor Englishman nor American, is safe from the inroads of the cruelty manufactured by the pagan cults of the day. That this great author, Sholem Asch, who had confined himself to Jewish subjects, should turn to a study of the central figure in Christendom is unusual indeed. That he should do so in the interests of greater understanding between men of all creeds is a matter of vital concern, for men are now, more than ever, in need of knowing their fellow men and they are bound to find inspiration in this novel.

Services are held at the North Shore Congregation Israel every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and visitors are always cordially welcome. The temple is located at the corner of Lincoln and Vernon avenues in Glencoe.
