

"That's more like it!" says genial Mr. Rector

It is not often that George Rector, world-famous food connoisseur and consultant, becomes indignant, but he admits it does irritate him to see perfectly good frankfurters relegated to picnics and hot dog stands. They deserve a better fate, he insists, and here Mr. Rector has given them one. This tasty luncheon dish or informal buffet snack involves a triple alliance between three certified food favorites—frankfurters, bacon and American cheese.

Cut the frankfurters in half lengthwise with a sharp knife. Cut 1/4-inch slices off a package of certified American cheese, also lengthwise. Slip a slice of cheese between the two halves of the frankfurter, and then wrap a strip of bacon spiral-fashion around them both. Fasten each end with half a toothpick. Broil until the bacon is crisp, the cheese melted, and the frankfurters at their most delectable juiciness, concludes Mr. Rector.

Lake Disaster Is Recorded in County History, 40 Years Ago

Just forty years ago Thanksgiving night, the steamship "Calumet" was grounded off the shores of Fort Sheridan. A. W. Fletcher, one of Highland Park's early settlers and prominent business man, who passed away several years ago, was responsible for the discovery of the distressed steamer and the recovery of its crew.

The following tribute to Mr. Fletcher was recorded in the historic county records: "When on Thanksgiving night of 1899, the steam barge 'Calumet' went ashore in a furious gale off Fort Sheridan, he was the first to discern and recognize the signal of distress from the stranded vessel. He built a large fire on the bluff opposite the wreck, and at once telegraphed the life-saving station at Evanston and secured their prompt assistance, by which the entire crew of 18 men were saved. The rescue was effected under difficulty, hardship and danger. It was near noon when the last boat reached the shore. Later in the day the storm increased, the waves broke clear over the wreck, and toward night the vessel went to pieces. The prompt assistance rendered undoubtedly prevented cost of many lives. His personal efforts in assisting the rescue party, exposing himself in the drenching rain, in launching and landing the lifeboat and in pulling the half-drowned sailors to a place of safety, is deserving of much, as well as care for their comfort when landed. In this enterprise Mr. Fletcher was an active leader, and his practical knowledge of what was necessary proved the right man in the right place. The life saving captain and crew did splendid work and the citizens and soldiers lent willing hands and endured much hardship in saving the lives of the shipwrecked men."

invested with the jewel of their office. Timely remarks were made by the new officers, also by the retiring worthy matron, Alvina Culver, and retiring worthy patron, Gerald Culver. This night climaxed the end of their successful year.

Peter Grimson Jr. gave musical selections on his Marimba. At the conclusion of the ceremonies refreshments were served in the dining room by past worthy matrons to approximately 420 guests.

Martine's Dancing Class Popular with High School Pupils

The bi-monthly groups who come to the Y for dancing instruction and a period of supervised dancing under that fine teacher and leader, James Weckler Martine, are most enthusiastic. The music is provided by the high school orchestra led by Bob Bock. The lessons begin promptly at 8:30 and at 9 the doors are closed. Many were unable to join the group last time because they neglected to make reservations. It is quite imperative that registration may be made previously at the Y, and at this time only a few more can be accommodated. The next party is next Friday night, December 15.

original law a qualified worker could obtain only a lump-sum payment equal to 3 1/2 per cent of his total wages.

"This means," said Mr. Lewis, "that the age barrier to obtaining federal retirement insurance has been torn down. Even the man who was already 65 when the old-age insurance system was set up and who therefore has never been under the federal program may now qualify for monthly benefits. To qualify for retirement insurance in 1940 it will be necessary for him to show that he has worked in six calendar quarters and received in each at least $50 in wages and has retired."

Mr. Lewis explained that if a man has already received a lump sum it will be deducted from the monthly payments which will be paid to him.

65 Year Old Workers Soon Eligible for Old Age Insurance

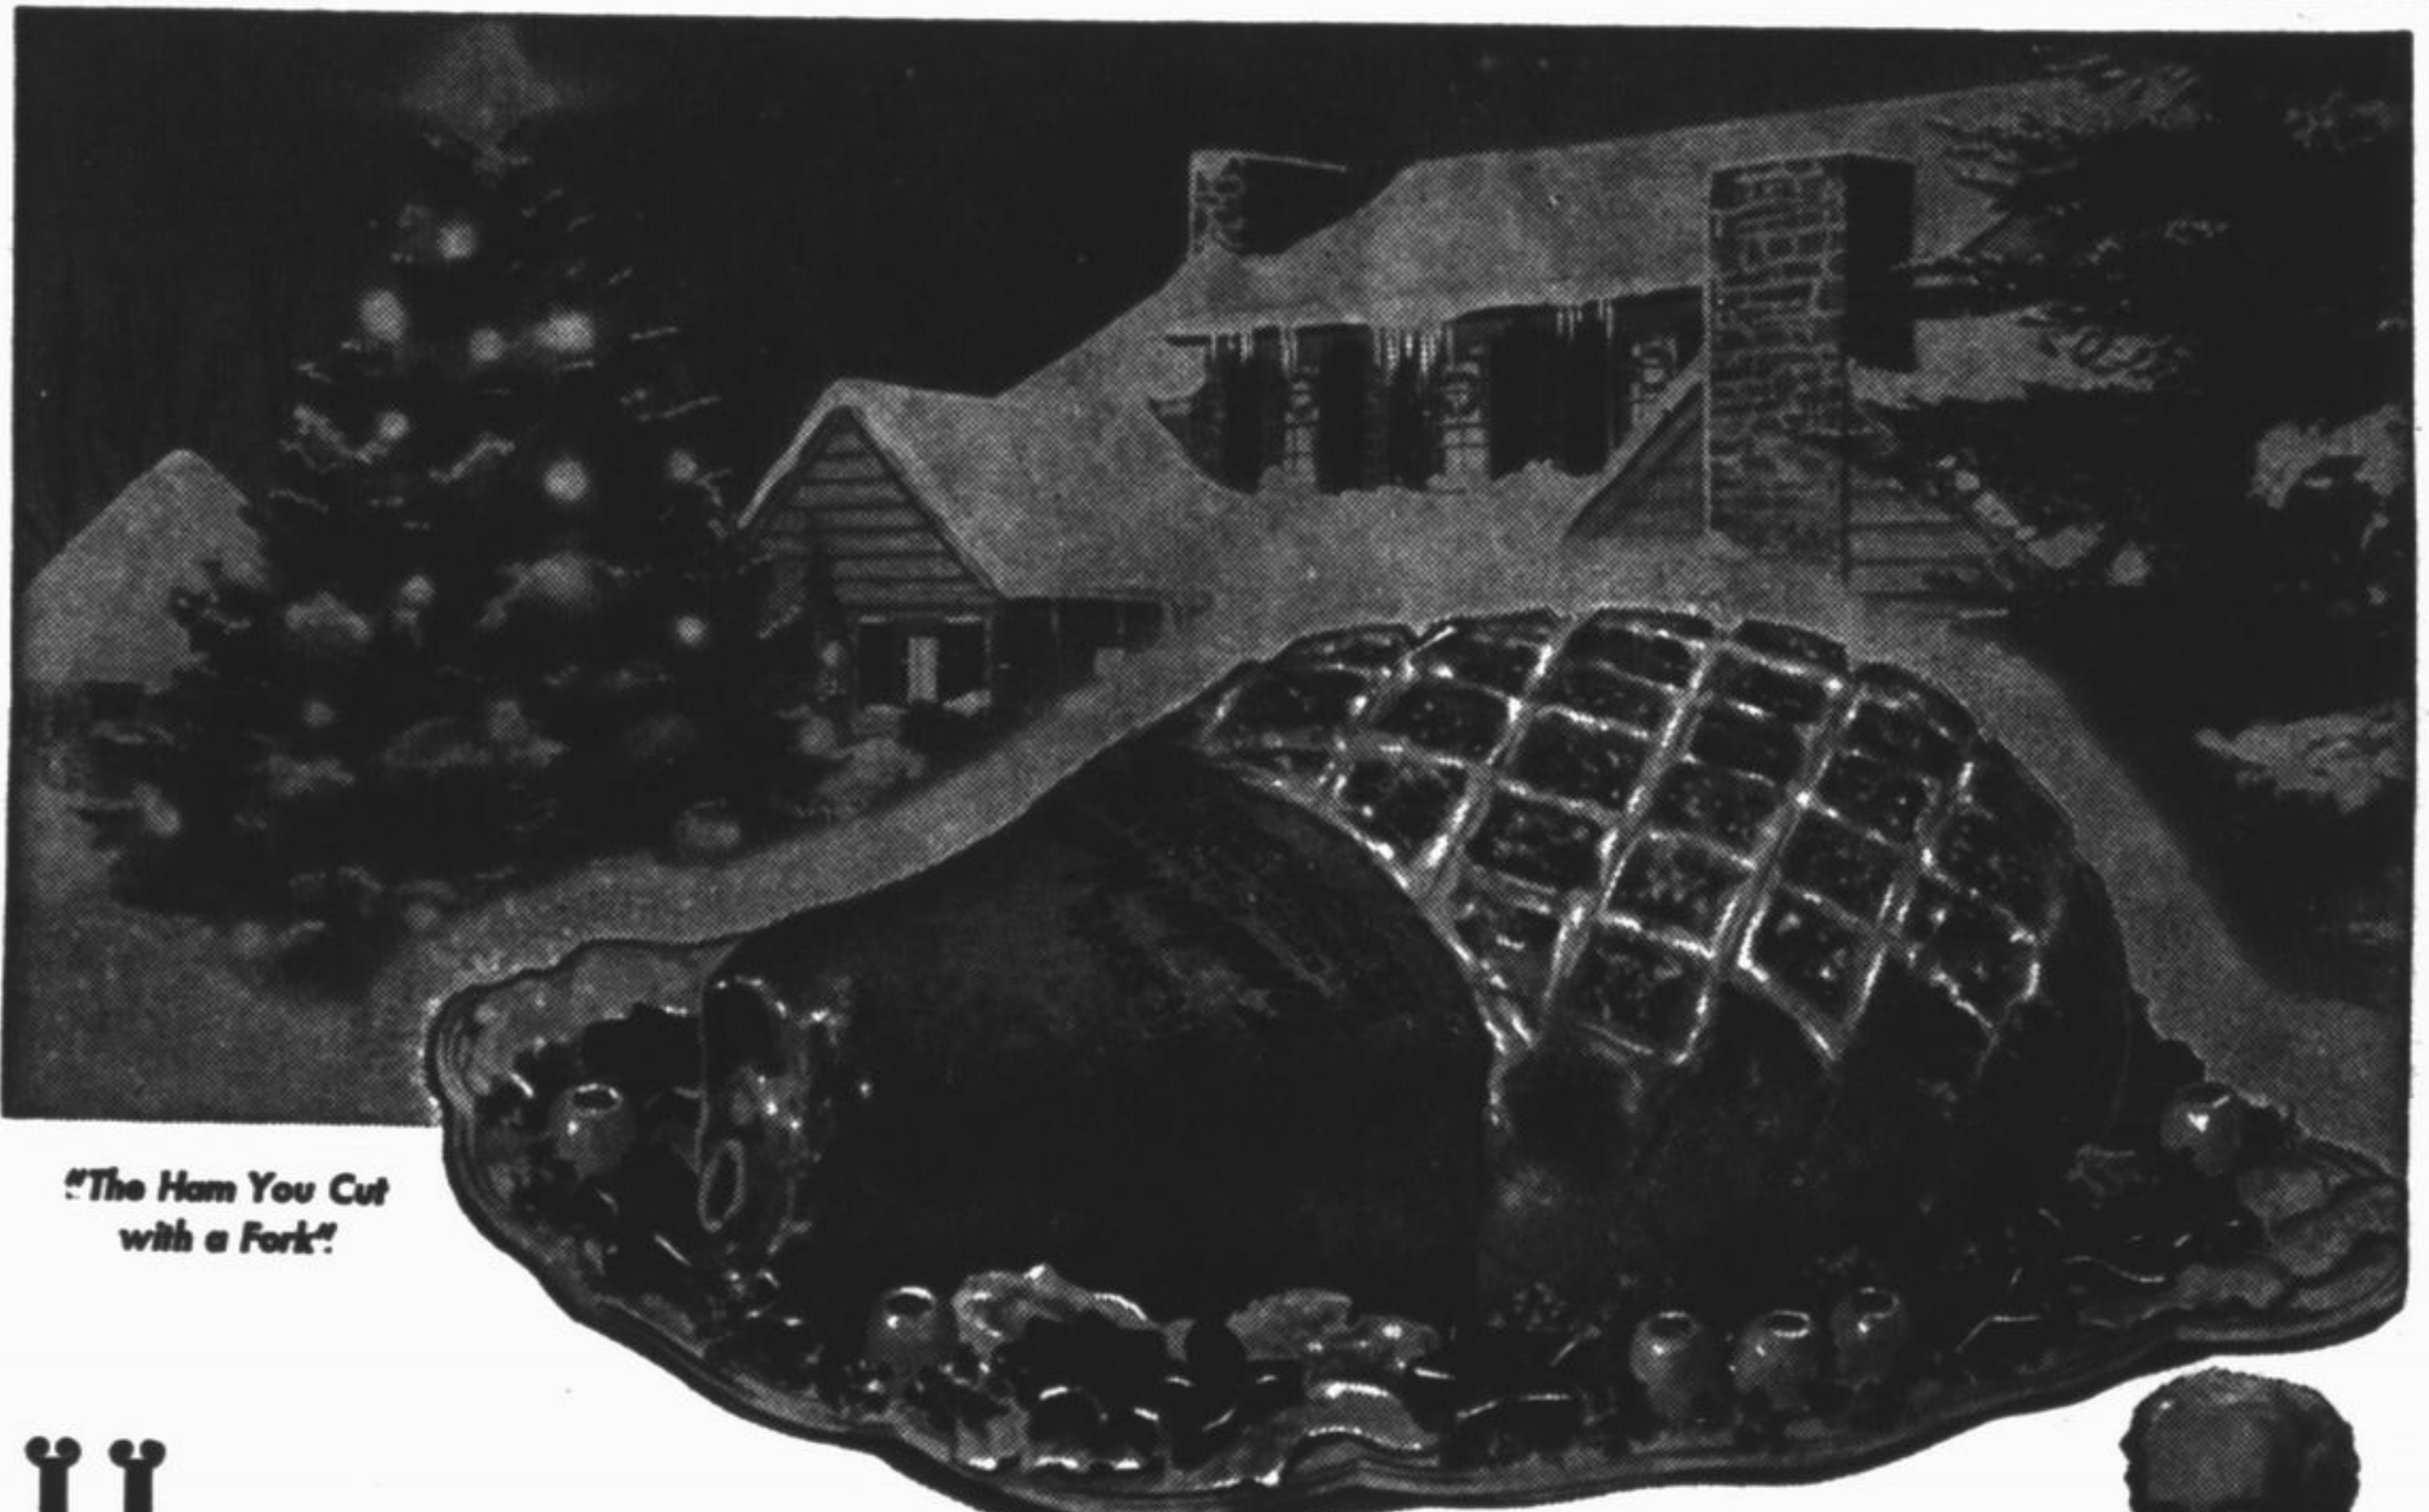

Shortly before Christmas, 12,175 men and women in Illinois are going to be notified that they may be entitled to monthly old-age insurance checks for the rest of their lives, Albert S. Lewis, manager of the Social Security Board field office at Waukegan announced today. Approximately 800 of this number live in the two counties, Lake and McHenry, serviced by the Waukegan office, he said.

Mr. Lewis explained that the recipients of this notice will be those to whom lump-sum benefits have been paid since the Federal old-age insurance system was established January 1, 1937. The amended act, he said, moves the date for monthly benefits up two years to 1940 and makes it possible for a wage earner to qualify after he is 65 years old, even if he has already received a single cash settlement.
