STUDENTS HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

With the Christmas holidays upon us our attention is called to those students who have been away to school and are now invading our town. Coming from Rolla, Mo. is Kelly Coale from the Missouri School of Mines. His sister, Carolou Coale, a teacher at Flossmore grammar school and another sister, Sue, from the University of Illinois will also be home for the holidays. Other students from the University of Illinois coming home this week are Elmer Stone, Marion Musser, Stewart Gail, Julius Laeger, C. J. "Bud" Bassler and Mildred Gail. Fred Musser and Roland Bleimehl will be here from Iowa State College and Rosemary Russo and Artis Martin will be home from the University of Iowa.

Sarah Jane Murfey is the only Highland Parker from Lindenwood college and Unni Boye is our only representative from the Indiana university. Ruth Chalmers, a Kappa Delta at Coe college arrived home the early part of the week. From Sweet Briar college, Sweet Briar, Va., comes Barbara Ashley Wright and her brother Bill Wright will be home from Kenyon college. Lee East arrived home last week from the Spartan School of Aeronautics at Tulsa, Okla. Marjory Weber is expected home this week from her junior year at Grinnell college. Bill Childs is home from his second year at Harvard Law school and Campbell Mills will spend the holidays from Deerfield academy, Deerfield, Mass., with his parents the L. A. Mills.

James Hart will be home this week from his second year at M.I.T. and his brother Dick will be here from Harvard as will Carroll Binder Jr., also from Harvard. Burton Wonnell is home from his studies at Purdue and Bill Knobloch who is taking a four year teacher course at the University of Wisconsin arrived home the last week-end.

mon, Louise Shire, Elizabeth Low, Marjory Shay and Helen Knight. Also from the East are: Keith Shay and Howell S. Murray from Amherst, Malcolm Vail Jr., and Bloss Vail from Cornell; Jim and Steven Aubrey from Princeton. Betty Ann Johnson is home from Skidmore college and Nancy McDonald from Ferry Hall and Catherine Jones from Stevens will spend the holidays with their respective parents.

The Principia group from St. Louis, Mo., which includes Barbara Bede, Grace Jean Pickett, Suzanne Heath, Eleanor Framhein, Jean Scully, Ben Weisbach and Paul Aukrum arrived home the early part of the week. And coming from Dartmouth for the holidays are Alan Bede, Eric Haessler, Kenneth Jones and Bill Jones.

Josephine Loewenstein and Virginia Sherwin will be here from Randolph-Macon Woman's college, Lynchburg, Va., and Adeline Raymond will be home from Colorado college, Colorado Springs, Colo. Miss Mary Jane Greenslade, a sophomore at Webster college, Webster Groves, Missouri will be home Friday, December 22 to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Greenslade.

Illinois State Normal university dismissed their classes last Friday for the Christmas holidays so Rosemary P. Holm was home the first of the week for her vacation. The daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wichman will also be home for the holidays; Miriam Wichman got home last Wednesday from Frances Shimer college and her sister Joan returned home this week Wednesday from Oberlin college. Also from Oberlin college is Audrey Prindle who returned home yesterday.

Paul W. Haskins, who was pledged Chi Psi recently at Cornell university, Ithaca, N.Y., got home Wednesday for the holidays. The Thomas Creigh family will be all assembled for the holidays when Virginia returns from Vassar college and John leaves his business in Minneapolis. Joan Pier returned home yesterday from DePauw and her brother, Art returned the same day from Purdue. Don Nichols is expected home Friday from his studies at Hamilton college, New York.

Elise Fleager, a senior at De Pauw university and Georgialou Fleager a junior at Purdue returned home the middle of the week but their sister, Molly a freshman at Mills college will stay in the West for the holidays, visiting relatives in San Francisco.

GRACE MILLER ENGAGED

At a small dinner party on Saturday evening Frank A. Miller of Ridgelee road, announced the engagement of his daughter, Grace, to A. Gerald Wilson of Evanston. Miss Miller is a graduate of Ward-Belmont college and of the University of Illinois. Her fiance, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wilson of Canton, Ill., was graduated from Knox college and from the University of Illinois. The wedding will take place in the early spring.

WEISBACH-NORCROSS ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weisbach of Maple avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Harriette to Mr. Edward P. Norcross Jr., son of Dr. Edward Norcross of Maple lane.

MARIAM WICHMAN ON ATHLETIC BOARD

Mariam Wichman, 627 St. Johns avenue, Highland Park, has been elected as an officer of the Athletic Association Board at Frances Shimer College, Mount Carroll. Mariam has been elected publicity manager by the student body. She will hold the office throughout the present college year.

In addition to the election of general officers there were nine students elected heads of various sports played at Frances Shimer.

ALPHA PHI HOLIDAY LUNCHEON

A chic French cafe on Michigan boulevard in Chicago is the designated rendezvous for all alumnae and collegiate members of Alpha Phi International Fraternity this Christmas season. Jacques' French Restaurant will be taken over entirely by Alpha Phi for their annual holiday luncheon on Thursday, December 28, at 12:30.

The affair is primarily intended to be most frivolous and conversational, quite in the mood of comparing notes about the holiday whirl, the social rush, family activities, interscholastic gossip, and Junior's new toys.

NEW YEARS EVE WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Mikkelsen of Cedar Falls, Iowa, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter Alpha to Mr. Karl Berning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berning of Deerfield. The nuptials will be read at seven-thirty in the evening of December 31st at the Fredsville Lutheran church in Cedar Falls, Iowa. A reception will follow the ceremony at the church auditorium. After a few days honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Deerfield temporarily.

Miss Mikkelsen, who resides on S. Greenbay road, has been an employee of the Highland Park Pharmacy for many years.

WILMA PHELPS TO WED DEC. 31

On New Years Eve Wilma Knobloch Phelps will become the bride of Mr. Clarence Edward Bohn, of Washington, D. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bohn of Gillett, Wis. The wedding will take place at the First Presbyterian church in Lake Forest at six o'clock in the evening with the Rev. W. Oliver Brackett reading the nuptials.

A reception will be given at nine o'clock the same evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Knobloch, quarters 113, Fort Sheridan.

GLADYS BROWN'S WEDDING DEC. 27

At a very quiet wedding ceremony Wednesday, December 27, Miss Gladys Brown and Mr. Leonard Johnson will be united in marriage. Miss Brown is the daughter of Mrs. Violet Brown and the late William J. Brown of Ridgewood drive and Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson L. Johnson of DeKalb. The ceremony will be read at eight o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's mother by the Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, with a reception following.

The bride's sister, Shirley, will serve as maid of honor, and Miss Laura Mae Carpenter will act as bridesmaid. Mr. Johnson will have Orville Johnson assisting him as best man and Douglas Brown will serve as usher.

After a short honeymoon Mr. Johnson and his bride will live in Wauconda.

DAVID RICHMAN HONORED

Mr. David Richman, 109 S. Green Bay road, Highland Park, was among the 166 students who received recognition at the annual Honors convocation of Northwestern university, held last Friday night on the Evanston campus.

Mr. Richman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richman. He is a freshman at the Northwestern university. He attended the Highland Park high school. Mr. Richman was awarded Class Honors from the College of Liberal Arts.

Mrs. Edmund D. Brigham of Yorktown, Va., formerly of Highland Park is the guest a few days this week of Mrs. George Bliss.
