While in this vicinity he gained employment with the North Shore Line, retiring from active service in 1930.

N. S. Women Eager to Aid in Jewish Welfare Fund Drive

When the second drive for the Jewish Welfare Fund gets under way early in January, the women of the North Shore will again volunteer their aid. United under Mrs. Alford S. Alschuler of Winnetka, they will canvas the community in a campaign to raise their share of the $2,500,000 that is Chicago's quota. Mrs. Arthur Oppenheimer of Highland Park is assisting Mrs. Alschuler as vice-chairman, and Mrs. Herbert Friedlander heads the Highland Park division.

Stories of the plight and privations of thousands of men, women and children in Poland are so desperate as to be indescribable. The hunger, the cold, the humiliation, and the degradation that these hundreds of thousands of people are experiencing daily have not been paralleled in history.

Love for fellow men, sympathy and generosity know no bounds. Once again when the drive for funds opens, citizens of the North Shore of Chicago will take their places along with civilized people of their villages, cities and countries in responding to the needs of the suffering thousands of people in Europe.

Alcyon to Present Bette Davis in "The Old Maid"

"Dust Be My Destiny" is the heart-and-soul story of two young people, newlyweds, who never get a break in life. They're real people. They get their share of bad breaks just as you and I, but they hope and trust that sooner or later things will go right. In filming Jerome Odlum's widely read novel, the screen presents an unusual film. At the Alcyon Thursday and Friday of this week.

"Nancy Drew and the Hidden Staircase", the fourth in the series of pictures based on the widely read Carolyn Keene stories, comes to the Alcyon Saturday on the Double-Feature program with Bonita Granville again in the role of the indomitable girl detective. Infant charm, hilarious comedy and romantic intrigue are combined in a most effective manner in "Unexpected Father," featuring sensational Baby Sandy, Mischa Auer, Dennis O'Keefe and Shirley Ross.

A drama that will linger long in the memory of all who see it is "The Old Maid" which will be an Alcyon presentation for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday with Bette Davis and Miriam Hopkins in the starring roles.

Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer appear in an unusual story called "When Tomorrow Comes," which proved a rich field for the abilities and acting genius of Miss Dunne and Mr. Boyer. To be screened on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, along with "On Your Toes," which features Zorina and Eddie Albert.

"Thunder Afloat" Stars Wallace Beery at Deerpath Theatre

One of the most lavish eras of American history in which a portion of the nation's inhabitants violated two federal laws and a much larger portion condoned the action—is told in Warners' "The Roaring Twenties," a saga of prohibition and gangsterism. The picture starring James Cagney and Priscilla Lane and featuring Humphrey Bogart, Gladys George, Jeffrey Lynn, and Frank McHugh will be presented at the Deerpath theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 4, 5 and 6.

Thrilling story of those little-known days of the World War when U-boats attacked Atlantic Coast shipping and improvised subchasers with untrained men went out to meet the menace, "Thunder Afloat" brings Wallace Beery to the screen Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 7, 8, 9 and 10, in one of his best two-fisted roles.

"Espionage Agent," the new Warner Brothers picture starring Joel McCrea and Brenda Marshall, will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 11, 12 and 13. It is a powerful and sensational drama of the unknown guardians of America's peace during history's most dangerous days. In the picture, the machinations of a ring of German spies are defeated, but it is not through the efforts of governmental forces but only by the clever and courageous extra-legal activities of a young American diplomat and the girl, who, he learns after he has married her, has been a tool of that spy ring. These are the roles played by McCrea and Miss Marshall.

Mr. William E. Holland and Mr. Milton St. Peter are spending this week in Lynchburg, Va., on business.

Mr. R. J. Peschman, who had held the position of Electrical Engineer at Fort Sheridan for the past thirty years, has retired and he and his family are now living at 642 Vine avenue, Highland Park.
