Highland Park H. S. Alumni Meet Sunday To Plan Celebration

There will be a public meeting of persons interested in the proposed semi-centennial celebration of the founding of the Highland Park high school on Sunday afternoon, January 7, at 4 o'clock, in the English Club Room of the Highland Park High School.

Already considerable interest is manifesting itself on the part of alumni and others. It is hoped to make this one of the outstanding events of 1940. The graduates far and near will be advised in ample time so as to make arrangements to attend. Local citizens also will be invited to come and participate in the festivities. There will be reunions of recent graduates at the Lake Forest High School as well as of the graduates through all the years at Highland Park. The communities sending students to one or the other are: Highland Park, Highwood, Fort Sheridan, Lake Forest, Lake Bluff, Great Lakes, West Lake Forest, Deerfield, and Bannockburn. Formerly Wheeling, Northbrook (once known as Shermerville), Libertyville, Diamond Lake, and Half Day sent students to the Highland Park school.

At the first meeting, Lake Forest representatives are asked to meet at the Highland Park High School with representatives from the whole district. Anyone interested is invited to come.

Taft's Budget Answer To Be Aired Friday

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 3.—Senator Robert A. Taft on Friday will answer the President's budget challenge with a plan to stop Federal deficits, it was announced here this week.

Under the title "Mr. President, Here's How to Balance the Budget," the Ohio Senator will speak before the Chicago Bar Association in Chicago tomorrow, Friday, January 5. His speech will be heard over the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company, 8:30 to 9:00 p.m. Central Standard Time.

The Senator's recent statements and the President's reply have brought the issue of government spending more forcefully before the public than at any time since the New Deal took office. After Senator Taft, during his recent trip through New England, declared that deficit spending can and must be stopped, President Roosevelt told news men on December 12 that he would like to be shown a way to balance the budget. He added that he would offer a "very handsome prize" if the Senator would tell him how.

SENATOR ROBERT A. TAFT

Senator Taft's answer will come at a time when interest in Federal spending plans will be keen, since the official budget estimate for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, will just be going to Congress.

Washington reports, since the beginning of the controversy between Senator Taft and the President, indicate that the new budget will show a smaller deficit than that for the current fiscal year. It has been anticipated that cuts in various bureaus will more than offset the increase to be recommended for national defense.

With public sentiment overwhelmingly behind Senator Taft in his belief that deficits can be stopped, New Deal spokesmen have been silent as to their former claims that a steadily increasing public debt is the route to prosperity. A year ago, this doctrine was being proclaimed as a build-up for the big budget for the present fiscal year. Now, with an election year ahead, it is evident that fiscal sails are being trimmed.

But a substantial deficit is still expected in the budget estimate next week. Usually the actual expenditures for a given year are much in excess of the January figure. The cut in the deficit, it is indicated, will be due in a large part to better prospects for Federal revenue because of the wartime upturn in business; also to a tapering off of public works and other programs from past high levels.

Two New Girl Scout Troops Invested

Candlelight investiture ceremonies were held at Elm Place and Ravinia schools. Mrs. Kenneth Anderson and Mrs. Gordon Buchanan, Jr., invested twenty-four girls at Elm Place school. The following girls received pins:

The troop committee chairman, Mrs. Eugene Hardin, assisted by mothers, served tea and chocolate after the ceremony.

At Ravinia school, the leaders Mrs. Irving Meyerhoff, Mrs. Leslie Huettman and Mrs. Sydney received the following girls:

Betty Lou Benson, Carol Grimes, Christie Huettman, Helen Louise Kee, Rosemary Kropke, Marian Manasse, Lois Anne McSweeney, Jean Meyerhoff, Patricia Miller, Dawn Osborne, Ruth Pirie, Ruth Rositer, Louise Ann Sanborn, Florence Schwenecker, Mary Lee Seidner, Phyllis Weed, Nettie Jane Wiener, Marvyn Wittelle.

Mrs. Oliver Weed, the chairman of the troop committee, was assisted by members of her committee in serving refreshments after the ceremony.

Garrick Players To Present "Winterset"

"Winterset," one of Maxwell Anderson's most popular plays, will be presented next Wednesday and Thursday nights, Jan. 10 and 11, by the Garrick players of Lake Forest college.

"Winterset" is written in blank verse, and contains many beautifully poetic lines as well as the base utterances of the criminal-type element in our population. The play is a "take-off" on the spectacular Sacco-Vanzetti murder case of a number of years ago, and in it Anderson pulls few punches.

The difficult character roles and the problem of successfully interpreting the free verse style used by the playwright makes the play a real test for an amateur group. However, Prof. Russell C. Tomlinson, head of the dramatics department of the college, is confident that the play will be numbered among the Garrick club's most successful productions.

A great Broadway success of a few years ago, "Winterset" was later reproduced in the movies, and enjoyed many long runs.

Anderson, who has for some time been rated among the most prominent of contemporary dramatists, is a newspaper man by profession. He was a son of a Baptist minister, and after graduation from the University of North Dakota, taught at Stanford university and Whittier college in California. He later became a journalist, which he has remained until the present, although he has won fame as a playwright.

His first drama was "What Price Glory," written in 1929, and he has since written such outstanding plays as "Elizabeth the Queen," "Mary of Scotland" produced by the Garrick players last year, "Saturday's Children," "The Starwagon," and many others.
