Clubs of Y.W.C.A. Plan "Town Fair" For February 1st

All who enjoyed the carnival of last year at the Y will be glad to hear of the great plans in progress for a similar afternoon and evening of fun on Thursday, Feb. 1. This is to be a Town Fair, and entertaining and unique diversions will be offered. The festivities begin at 1 p.m. and bridge will be played until 5 and a bakery sale will be in progress as well as other games played. At 7:30 there will be dancing which will continue until 12, and refreshments may be secured. The admission fee is practically negligible, and it is hoped a goodly number will be on hand.

This affair is to be given by six of the Y.W.C.A. clubs, three of them Business Girls clubs, the Mothers club, and the Young Marrieds. Save the date—Feb. 1.

Scout Troop 30 Goes on Overnight Hike

Leaving the Elm Place school at 4 p.m. last Friday and returning late Saturday afternoon, fourteen Scouts from Troop 30 took their first overnight hike of the new year to the new Scout cabins located in the Forest Preserve just north of Wheeling.

With the weather man lending a helping hand, skating on the Des Plaines river was in order Friday evening as well as all day Saturday. Other items on the program included a number of short hikes, Scout advancement work, and a variety of games. Truman Metzler, chief chef for the trip, capably looked after the appetites of the party.

Since the hike proved so successful, the Troop Staff is planning more of the same in the near future. However, at present entire meeting nights are being devoted to rehearsals for the troop's annual Stunt Show, which is scheduled for Tuesday evening, February 13.

Garden Class Meeting Postponed to Jan. 30

Why work more than one day a week? Roger Payne, "The Hobo Philosopher," asks the question in a book that is making a stir among economists and politicians. He believes that work is not a blessing but that laboring long hours should be discouraged and prohibited.
