LEONARD-GMEINER WEDDING

Before the fireplace banked with green huckleberry, white snapdragons and white sweet peas at the E. E. Leonard home, their daughter Janet and Seymour Gmeiner Jr. said their vows Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. William J. Spicer of Appleton, Wisconsin, officiated at the ceremony. The bride was gowned in an Italian brocade afternoon dress and her attendants, Mrs. Kenneth Downer of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Miss Margaret Mercer of Evanston were dressed in ice blue chiffon. The bride's bouquet consisted of orchids and freesia and the girls carried American Beauty roses. Little Sue Leonard, niece of the bride, was sweet in a long blue frock carrying a basket of white flowers consisting of sweet peas and roses. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leonard on Carol Ct. following the ceremony.

Mr. Gmeiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Gmeiner of Appleton, Wis., had his brother, James, as his best man.

The young couple will make their home in Appleton, Wis., where Mr. Gmeiner is practicing law, after a week's honeymoon.
