Final North Shore Series Concert To Feature Rubinstein

Artur Rubinstein, who has been called "the most exciting pianist of our time" will appear in Highland Park on April 2, as the final feature of this year's North Shore Series. The recital, which will be presented in the auditorium of the Highland Park High School, promises to be a high point in the year's musical attractions. Rubinstein's appearance here is a part of his third American tour under the management of S. Hurok. His world conquest is quite different from the nationalistic yearnings which cause the current crises. It is rather, as he puts it, a "conquest to unite mankind in the name of music." For more than twenty years, Rubinstein has been carrying a special diplomatic passport from his native Poland, bearing the inscription "on a mission of art." His home is now in Paris, where his wife and two children remain when they are not touring with him. Rubinstein arrived in this country last month from Mexico, after a concert tour throughout Central America. During the past summer, he played in South Africa, flying there from his home in Paris. The Highland Park recital will be Mr. Rubinstein's only appearance in this district during the present tour. As a result, those wishing seats should obtain them as soon as possible, as the committee anticipates the largest attendance of the entire series. Tickets may be ordered by mail through Box 584, Highland Park.

College Cagers Trim Illinois Five 41-38

Rally In Final Minutes Gives Jaybirds First League Victory

Lake Forest college's varsity basketball team scored its first Illinois College Conference victory last Saturday at the local high school gym by trimming Illinois college 41 to 38. The Jaybird victory terminated a four-game losing streak. Illinois led at the half 23 to 22 and maintained a slight edge until late in the final period when Bob Rhine, George Harrison and Floyd Gates scored field goals to pull the game out of the fire. Bob Mickelson took over Harrison's forward position in the starting lineup for Lake Forest and scored four baskets and a free throw before leaving the game on fouls. Harrison came in to replace him and hit for four baskets and three free throws for 11 points. Gates took top scoring honors with 12 points on four baskets and a like number of charity tosses. Hagelauer paced the losers with eight points.

A basket by Jimmy Manion in the closing minutes gave the Janowitz Fine Foods quintet a 29 to 27 victory over the college freshman team. Bob Maiman, Elmer Maiman and Bob Petersen, all former Lake Forest college cage luminaries, were in the Janowitz lineup.

Bill Bell and Lyle Johnson stood out for the freshman team, who were undefeated previous to Saturday's game.

Two games on the road are on this week's schedule for the varsity. Saturday night they will meet North Central at Naperville in their sixth conference game. Next Monday, the Jaybirds will invade Waukesha, Wis., for a game with Carroll college. After the Carroll game, the local five will meet Augustana and Knox on foreign fields before returning to the home court to play the season's finale against Millikin.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Soul" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 18.

The Golden Text was, "I will set my tabernacle among you; and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people" (Leviticus 26: 11, 12).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly" (Psalms 84: 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul or Spirit signifies Delty and nothing else: There is no finite soul nor spirit. Soul or Spirit means only one Mind, and cannot be rendered in the plural" (p. 466).

Tarbell to Bring Famous Mysteries To Elm Place School

the country—Houdini and Thurston included.

Tarbell is bringing his piece of rope — his knowledge of human minds—his sense of humor—and his ability to create famous mysteries to Elm Place school. He, too, is featuring magical classics of the orient—mystic wonders of china, Japan, India, Egypt and Bali—from Ching Ling Foo to the Witch Doctors.

Thurston used to say "When you see Tarbell perform—you will understand why he is a teacher of magicians—and why conjurers come for miles to see his mysteries." He carries no carload of boxes, barrels and cabinets, but he does bring a carload of mystery that audiences discuss for months from "Eyeless Vision"—in which with eyes securely sealed he sees what others do not with eyes wide open, to the fascinating "Magic of the East" with its background of interesting stories. There are still a few tickets on sale at Gsell's Drug store or from Mrs. J. D. Fickett, H. P. 1893.

posal in the Highmoor subdivision and its possible effect on the well water largely used in that area. It was Mr. Swanson's contention that under existing conditions that the well water in this district could be particularly susceptible to contamination. In line with this thought he asked George B. Prindle, superintendent of the water works, who was in the audience, if the water in this subdivision had ever been tested as a matter of routine. Mr. Prindle stated that except when samples were brought in directly by the property owner, no tests were ever made.

At the suggestion of the council, Mr. Prindle and Commissioner Swanson were named as a committee to visit the Highmoor district and take several well samples to be examined and reported upon by the water department.

Commissioner Swanson also took the citizens of the community to task for their failure to keep their sidewalks clear of ice and snow during the current sloppy weather. He stated that several complaints had been received in his department on this subject during the past fortnight. Upon checking the city ordinances he could find no law on the books that compels the property owners to shovel their walks. As he was of the opinion that such an ordinance was badly needed in the community he asked the council to instruct Corporation Counsel McKenna to investigate the matter and draw up a proposed ordinance for the group to act upon. He cited the city of Milwaukee as one municipality that had an excellent ordinance covering this subject.

The recent tragic motor car accidents on Skokie highway were discussed at some length by the council at Monday evening's meeting. In line with this discussion, Commissioner Swanson asked Chief of Police Maroney what equipment the police cars carried for their motor accident work. Chief Maroney stated in reply that outside of flares that were used in marking off the scene of an accident to prevent further mishaps, little in the way of special equipment was used. It was the council's opinion that first aid kits might well be added to the list. Chief Maroney took the stand that the least experimenting in medical work indulged in by the police department the better off the injured motorist would be. However, it was generally conceded that the police department should be better equipped to take care of superficial injuries than they are at this writing.

In an interview after the meeting, Mayor Ronan wished to again call attention to the readers of THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS that the deadline for city vehicle licenses was definitely set for the 1st of March. He stated that to date scarcely more than 1,700 applications had been received. Inasmuch as the total registration in the city amounted to over 3,500 cars, less than 50 per cent of the city's automobile owners have bought their 1940 licenses.
