

Adult Education Sponsors Community Badminton Tourney

There will be another community-wide badminton tournament on Monday and Wednesday evenings, March 18 and 20. The tournament will be conducted by the physical education staff of the Adult Education Night School.

It is to be held in the gymnasiums of the Highland Park High school. In the schedule of events will be women's singles and doubles; men's singles and doubles; and mixed doubles.

There is to be a classification system so that all who want to enter the tournament can be properly entered into one of the following classes:

- Class A for advanced players.
 - Class B for average players.
 - Class C for beginners.
- Awards in the form of ribbons will be given to winning places. An entry fee will be charged to pay for the birds used. For further information call George Scheuchem-pflug (Mr. X) Phone H.P. 2442.

Alec Templeton Time

From High School

Fifteen hundred north shore residents will be given an opportunity on Monday evening, April 22, to see how a top-rank nationwide network radio show goes on the air. On that date, the regular weekly broadcast of Alec Templeton Time, featuring the celebrated pianist and composer, Alec Templeton, Pat O'Malley, and a world-famous guest artist supported by a concert orchestra will go on the air direct from the stage of the Highland Park high school auditorium. Arranged for the benefit of the Peacock Camp for Crippled Children at Lake Villa, Ill., the radio program will be followed by a special one hour performance in which Alec Templeton and his broadcast associates will take part. Information concerning the sale of tickets will be announced shortly.

Associate members of the Peacock Camp for Crippled Children who will be active in the plans and preparations for the benefit include Mrs. Herbert Nock, Mrs. Ivan Pieters, and Miss Felicite Reynolds of Evanston; Mrs. Robert F. Zeddies of Wilmette; Mrs. Hugh G. Peterson of Kenilworth; Mrs. Kingsley Colton, Mrs. Robert Driscoll, and Mrs. Averill Tilden of Winnetka; Mrs. S. A. Rothermel, and Mrs. Bernard Smith of Glencoe; Mrs. Harold C. Gifford, Mrs. Paul R. Haskins, and Mrs. Haskell S. Rhet of Highland Park.

Officers of the board of directors of the camp include Mrs. James M. Miller of Lake Forest, president; Mrs. W. W. Haerther and Mrs. H. Foster Straw Jr., vice-presidents; Mrs. Frank M. Judson of Winnetka, recording secretary; Mrs. Owen West, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Nicholas Starosselsky, treasurer.

Mrs. Howard Emig of Lake Forest is general chairman in charge of the benefit, and assisting her are Mrs. Theodore Proxmire, co-chairman, Mrs. Richard Gunthorp, program chairman; Mrs. Boyd Hill, chairman of advertising; and Mrs. Elliott Detchon, ticket chairman.

Learn About State Unemployment Law In Evanston March 11

Highland Park employers and business men will have a chance to learn all about the Illinois unemployment compensation law at a special school of instruction to be sponsored by the Evanston Chamber of Commerce at the North Shore hotel beginning next Monday evening, March 11, at 7:45 p.m. The school will be held for five successive Mondays through April 8.

The sessions will be open to all employers in this locality whether or not they belong to any Chamber of Commerce, it was announced by Secretary Loren P. Meyer, who extended a special invitation to the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce. Topics will be discussed for attending the sessions.

Martin P. Durkin, director of the state department of labor, is sending James E. Tripp, informational representative of the division of placement and unemployment compensation to conduct the school. The classes will provide local employers with an opportunity to get authentic information about recent changes in the state unemployment compensation program and ask questions about job insurance.

The school will also give smaller employers who are coming under the provisions of the state law for the first time in 1940 an opportunity to learn about their rights and duties under the Illinois statutes. Not only will the lecturer explain the law in laymen's language, but will also illustrate more difficult sections of the act by the use of charts and other graphic materials.

The first class next Monday evening will deal in detail with the provision of the law concerned with employer liability. Others will take up the figuring of benefits, merit ratings, service furnished employers, and the final lecture will be on the Federal Society Security system and how it affects employers.

Representatives of the field service division and the Illinois State Unemployment service will be on hand also to answer questions of employers.

Applicants from Southern Illinois will be enrolled for Infantry Training at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. Dates of camp—July 9 to August 7.

Applicants from western Wisconsin will be enrolled for Infantry Training at Fort Snelling, Minn. Dates of Camp—July 9 to August 7.

The Military Training Camps Association, National Hdq., 6 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, Ill., has been designated by the Secretary of War as the primary civilian agency to assist the War Department in the Citizens' Military Training Camps enrollment activities.

Young men from Cook county, 17 to 24 years of age, of good moral character and sound physique, may secure application blanks, information folder and names of medical examiners from the MTCA office room 905, 6 N. Michigan avenue, Chicago, or from any of its Ward and Town Committeemen.

The objects of the Citizens' Military Training Camps are to bring together young men of high type from all sections of the country and thereby develop closer national and social unity; to teach the privileges, duties and responsibilities of American citizenship; to stimulate patriotism; to interest young men in the importance of military training; to teach self-discipline and obedience; and to develop the physical standard of American youth through participation in military exercises, athletic games and sports, conducted under expert directors. These camps are free of cost to the trainees and free of obligation for further military service. Transportation going and returning, wholesome food, uniforms, athletic equipment, laundry service and medical attention are provided by the Government.

Paul Muni in

"We Are Not Alone" At Deerpath Theatre

Playing at the Deerpath Thursday and Friday, March 7 and 8 in a double feature program is "The Return of Doctor X" and "Private Detective."

Synthetic blood, murder, disappearance, chills and thrills in the thrilling picturization of "The Return of Doctor X." The cast includes Rosemary Lane, Humphrey Bogart, Dennis Morgan, and John Littel.

"Private Detective", starring Dick Foran, Jane Wyman and Maxie Rosenbloom as a trio of private sleuths who get themselves involved in deceptions of a crooked lawyer and his skulduggery.

"We Are Not Alone," the new Warner Brothers film starring Paul Muni and Jane Bryan, will be presented at the Deerpath Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, March 9, 10, 11 and 12. It is Muni's first modern, romantic role in several years.

Romance and adventure, comedy and thrills emerge in a whirlwind of impetuous, headlong action throughout the colorful scenes of "Gunga Din," sensational screen drama of British army life in India, playing at the Deerpath Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 13, 14 and 15. Cary Grant, Victor McLaglen and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., fill the roles of Sergeants Cutter McChesney and Ballantine, with Sam Jaffe cast as Gunga Din, and Joan Fontaine as the girl in the drama.

The next meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Highland Park hospital will be held Wednesday, March 13, at 10 a.m. Luncheon will be served.

Tenth District Holds Birthday Fund Party in Evanston

The Tenth District will hold a General Federation Birthday fund party at the Woman's Club of Evanston on March 13 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Charles C. Wells, 2409 Colfax, Evanston, is president of the hostess club. This party will begin with a musicale and Mrs. P.M. LaRose, 2600 Edina Blvd., Zion, Ill. Tenth District music chairman is in charge of the entire program.

The Woman's Library Club of Glencoe, which is the oldest club in the Tenth District Federation of Women's clubs, having been organized in 1874, is opening the program with a brief skit in costume entitled "A Club in the Making." This promises to create a great deal of interest in the Tenth District as many of the early club members are taking part. This opening skit will be followed by the Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Evanston Woman's Club in a costume quartet "A Bicycle Built for Two," which is representative of the "Gay Nineties." The chorus of the Rogers Park Woman's club under the able direction of Mrs. Samuel M. Ross, 1512 Fenwick, Chicago, with Mrs. M. U. Stone, 1400 Sherwin, Chicago, serving as accompanist, will carry on the idea of the growth in club work with a group of songs representative of the period 1900-1910, the World War era and the modern day. The Waukegan Woman's club brings to this program the next episode entitled, "A Club Woman's Morning." This scene is to be taken from the historical pageant which the Waukegan Woman's club performed February 19 as their Founders' Day program.

The Ravenswood Woman's club contributes the last scene entitled "A Futuristic Club Meeting" and these three scenes will be interspersed with appropriate music.

Mrs. George Woods, is in charge of St. Hubbard Woods, is in charge of an attractive ceremony designed to honor the pioneer club women which will take place in the lounge of the Evanston club immediately following the music program. There will be a big birthday cake and a silver offering will be taken for the General Federation Birthday Fund. The Woman's Club of Evanston will act as hostesses, assisted by the music chairmen of the Tenth District in serving tea to the entire assemblage.

Annual Meeting at Bethany, Wednesday

Get in . . . and wait for the world to catch up!

UNTIL you drive it, it's impossible to know how far apart Lincoln-Zephyr stands among cars . . . how completely it points the way to a new and far more satisfying motoring world. It was from the start and still is an altogether new kind of car. Its engine is a mighty "12" . . . yet its price is moderate . . . and its owners report operating economy that would be surprising even with fewer cylinders! Its basic construction is unique, with body and frame a single truss-built unit. Its floating ride and almost effortless handling ease never fail to surprise those who experience them for the first time. Its advanced style has changed a nation's tastes in car design. We invite you to try Lincoln-Zephyr yourself. You'll find it still bigger, more powerful, more beautiful this year . . . and you'll know before you've gone a mile that you're well out ahead of the pack!
